BEAVER.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

BEAVER, PA., November 5, 1875.

The official vote of Beaver county is: Hartranft 3,086, Pershing 2,703, Browne 301; Rawle 3,129, Piollet 2,709, Pennypacker 258. The Republican county ticket is all elected by a larger average majority than that given for the State ticket, owing to the fact that the temperance county ticket polled less than two hundred votes.

BERKS.

Pershing's majority, 6,569; Piollet's majority, 6,507.

BLAIR.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, PA., November 5, 1875.

SCHUYLKILL.

Pershing's majority, 1,338; Piollet's majority, 1,296. The Democrats elect all of their county officers.

SNYDER.

MIDDLEBURG, November 5.—The official count in Snyder county gives Hartranft 319 majority and Rawle the same majority.

SOMERSET.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

SOMERSET, PA., November 5, 1875.

Somerset county official: Hartranft 2,989, Pershing 1,689; Rawle 2,999, Piollet 1,689.

UNION.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

LEWISBURG, PA., November 5, 1875.

The official majority for Hartranft in Union county is 607; for Rawle 583.

LEWISBURG, November 5.—The official count in Union county gives Hartranft a majority of 607, and Rawle a majority of 583.

MINNESOTA.

ST. PAUL, November 5.—Returns from the State election continue to be favorable to the Republicans so far as the State ticket is concerned. The Republicans claim 10,000 to 12,000 majority for all the State candidates except Treasurer, who will probably have from 4,000 to 5,000. The legislative returns are as yet meager. The Democrats appear to have gained so far four or five members. This, if not offset by the Republican gains, will make the Legislature very close.

KANSAS.

ATCHISON, November 5.—The Daily Champion has returns from eighty-nine of the 103 Representative districts in Kansas, which show the election of fifty-eight regular Republicans, eight Independent Republicans, eleven Democrats and twelve elected on the People's and Reform tickets. The opposition had a much larger number of members last year than this year, and the election has resulted in a much more decided Republican victory than then. The only Senatorial vacancy is filled by the election of a Republican, and of the three District Judges to be elected, the Republicans have elected two. In a large number of counties straight Democratic tickets were run for the first time in many years, and in every instance were defeated, polling a much smaller vote than when the opposition was organized under another name. The proportion of Republicans on Reform and opposition local tickets was very small, and the result shows that a less number of such tickets have been elected this year than since the last Presidential contest. In all parts of the State, wherever a straight party issue was presented, the vote shows larger Republican majorities than were ever before given in a contest for local officers. Of the fourteen districts yet to hear from, twelve will certainly elect Republicans, and the Legislature will therefore be more than three-fourths Republican.

WISCONSIN.

MILWAUKEE, November 5.—It now appears that Ludington, Republican, has 1,500 majority for Governor. Kuchen, Democrat, is undoubtedly elected Treasurer. The vote for the other candidates is so close that nothing but the official can determine the result. The Republicans have five majority in the Senate and six in the Assembly.

NEW YORK.

ALBANY, November 5.—Returns received give a majority for Bigelow of 16,798, with a prospect of further increase.

MORE TROOPS FOR CUBA—ANOTHER NOTE FROM MINISTER CUSHING.

MADRID, November 5.—One thousand more soldiers will embark at Santander on the 8th, for Cuba. The Government has transferred two brigades from Catalonia to the North. The Cronisto reasserts that the meeting of the Cortes will not be postponed.

The Imparcial states that Mr. Cushing, the American Minisister, has delivered to the Minister of Foreign Affairs another note, similar to that presented early last month, in regard to the jurisdiction of courts martial over citizens of the United States in Cuba. The Spanish Cabinet will speedily reply.

PERSISTENT DEMANDS OF THE VATICAN.

MADRID, November 5.—The Diario Espanal says the Vatican has sent a note to Madrid which expresses approval of Cardinal Simeoni's conduct regarding the circular. The note insists upon the execution of the Concordat, refuses to recognize the royal placet, attributes the civil war to religious tolerance and demands that the Bishop of Urgel be tried by ecclesiastical judges and not by the ordinary tribunal.

Russia.

COMMERCIAL CREDIT THREATENED—SOMETHING LIKE A FINANCIAL PANIC.

LONDON, November 5.—The failure of Dr. Strousberg, the great railway contractor, threatens Russia's commercial credit. Many failures have already occurred. The banks are in a state of fear, which reacts on the London money market.

NO INTERFERENCE WITH TURKEY.

ST. PETERSBURG, November 5.—It is semi-officially announced that Russia has sent no communication regarding Turkey to the signatories of the Treat y of Paris, as reported. The good understanding and continued exchange of views between the powers render such a communication unnecessary.

ELECTION OF PRESIDENT OF ASSEMBLY.

VERSAILLES, November 5.—Duke D'Audiffret Pasquier was to-day elected President of the Assembly by a combination of the Left with a portion of the Right. The act is regarded as a demonstration against the Bonapartists.

MEMPHIS.

Public Officers Arrested for Kidnaping—Injunction Against the Wharfmaster—Lecture by Ex-Governor Vance.

MEMPHIS, November 5.—Recorder Winters to-day held J. J. and A. M. Smith each in $1,000 bond to answer the charge of attempting to kidnap Jos. M. Tighe, who was arrested by them on a warrant from Governor Porter, on a requisition from the Governor of Ohio, to answer the charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses. The Recorder held them in accordance with the section of the code which says, "If any person by color of his office, wilfully or corruptly oppress any person, under pretense of acting in his official capacity, he shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000, or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year."

An injunction was obtained to-day in the First Chancery Court by a number of steamboatmen, restraining the Wharfmaster from collecting wharfage, as the same is not applied to improving the wharf, as required by law.

Ex-Governor Vance, of North Carolina, lectured at the Opera House to-night, on "The Scattered Nation."

CRIMINAL RECORD.

Alleged Forger Arrested in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, November 5.—John Corless has been arrested in this city, charged with negotiating forged Erie city water works bonds. He is said to have been a participant in the wholesale scheme to flood the country with spurious bonds of the New York Central, Western and Buffalo and Erie Railroads.

St. Louis Whisky Frauds—Ex-Gauger McFall Pleads Guilty—No New Indictments.

ST. LOUIS, November 5.—Col. John McFall, late United States Gauger here, and who recently wrote a very high-sounding letter to a prominent officer in the Treasury Department on the subject of his removal from office, appeared in the United States District Court to-day, withdrew his plea of not guilty to four indictments pending against him and entered a plea of guilty. No further indictments were returned by the Grand Jury to-day and nothing has transpired tending to confirm the rumors of yesterday that several prominent persons here and elsewhere had been indicted for complicity in whisky frauds.

The Hocking Valley Strike.

COLUMBUS, November 5.—Most of the miners in the Hocking Valley are on a strike, but the indications are that it will not last long. One prominent operator has acceded to the demands of his miners, and it is not unlikely that others will follow, as the demand for coal is quite large.

NEWS SUMMARY.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Probabilities for To-Day—For the Ohio Valley, winds shifting to southerly, slightly warmer and clear weather, followed by falling barometer.

The steamship Greece, from London, has arrived at New York.

WASHINGTON.

No Confirmation of the Reported Indictment of Orville Grant and General Babcock---The President and Secretary Bristow Unmoved by Threats of the Whisky Ring.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 5, 1875.

Nothing has been received here to confirm the St. Louis dispatch alleging the indictment of Orville Grant and General Babcock, and it is not credited in quarters likely to be well informed. In the first place, it is well known that the whisky ring have, from the start, been threatening war upon the Administration if they were not let alone; and, in the next place, it is well known that the Administration has, despite these threats, proceeded without a moment's "let up" to prosecute the whisky ring to the full extent of the law. In these prosecutions Secretary Bristow has had the full and hearty support of President Grant. The natural inference is, therefore, that so far from having anything to fear as regards the complicity of any of his blood relatives or official family with the whisky frauds, the President is fully aware that the threat is a weak invention of the enemy to bluff off pursuit and punishment.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 5, 1875.

THE RUMORED INDICTMENT OF GENERAL BABCOCK AND ORVILLE GRANT.

The Attorney General not having been informed officially that General Babcock and Orville Grant had been indicted by the St. Louis Grand Jury, it is the opinion of the Cabinet officials and others here that no such indictments have been found. General Babcock being spoken to on the subject this morning, remarked that he did not care to take any notice of the report, unless it should be verified.

ALLEGHENY COMMITTEES.

The Printing Committee Amend the Johnston Ordinance and Order that it be Printed—Gas—City Property.

The Committees on Printing, Gas and City Property, of Allegheny Councils, met last evening. Below will be found reports of the business transacted:

CITY PRINTING.

The time of the Printing Committee was mainly employed in the discussion of the ordinance proposed by Mr. Johnston, regulating the city printing. The ordinance, after several amendments had been proposed and agreed to, was ordered to be printed. It will come up in Councils at the next regular meeting—Thursday evening of next week.

Section 1 provides that immediately after the passage of the ordinance, and on the first Tuesday in May annually thereafter, the Printing Committee shall open the sealed proposals received by the Controller, for the public newspaper printing for Councils and the various departments of the city government and let the contracts to the lowest responsible bidder.

Section 2 provides that the contracts for newspaper printing shall be awarded to two established daily newspaper, published in Allegheny county, with a general circulation in the city of Allegheny, one English and one German, the committee, in awarding the contracts, to be governed by the character, standing and circulation of the papers.

Section 3 makes it the duty of the Controller to advertise in the papers authorized to do the public printing for sealed proposals for said public printing. All proposals shall state the price per square to be charged for the first and each subsequent insertion.

THE GAS COMMITTEE

recommended the adoption of resolutions for lamps at the following places: Corner of Robinson street and the first alley west of said street; five posts and lamps on Troy Hill road; one at corner of Market street and Stanton avenue; nine on McClure avenue, Eleventh ward, before said street is paved; one at corner of Franklin street and McDonald alley, Second ward.

CITY PROPERTY.

At the meeting of this committee it was decided that hereafter all bills for cleaning out the sewer pipes in City Hall must be certified by the Mayor.

Messrs. Wilson, Burton and Thompson were appointed a special committee to ascertain the cost of a suitable lot for an engine house in the First ward.

Bills amounting to $200 were approved and ordered to be paid.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, November 5, 1875.

MOODY-SANKEY MEETINGS.

There is a perceptible falling off in the attendance at Moody and Sankey's prayer meeting held in the Talmadge tabernacle every morning. The decreased attendance was accounted for on Tuesday by the election. There were about 100 requests for prayer and Mr. Needham, an Irish evangelist, offered a fervent prayer. After a hymn, Mr. Moody spoke on the efficacy and necessity of prayer, and recommended his hearers to read the seventh chapter of John at least once a day until Friday next, which was the day set apart for fasting and prayers, and ask God that their prayers might be answered and that they might be separated from the world. A number arose for prayers, and a number requested prayers for those who were lying ill. Mr. Moody then prayed and said: To-morrow we will have a meeting for dissatisfied Christians, and all those who are satisfied can stay away; that the meetings so far had appeared to be attended by Christian people and members of churches.

The religious services at the Brooklyn Rink this evening were well attended, the place being filled to its utmost capacity. Mr. Moody gave out the hymn "Guide me, Oh, Thou Great Jehovah," which was sung by the entire congregation, and Rev. Dr. Armitage, of the Fifth Avenue Baptist church, led in earnest prayer. Mr. Sankey then sang "Free from Law, Oh, happy condition!" and Mr. Moody read a portion of the first chapter of St. John, beginning at the sixth verse, after which he offered prayer. In giving out the usual announcements he again impressed on Christians the necessity of staying away from evening services on Sunday. He said that if they came and occupied the best seats the ushers would be under the necessity of turning them out. The meeting on Sunday evening was to be one for dissatisfied Christians—that was Christians who were not satisfied with themselves. He took his text from the ninth verse of the third chapter of Genesis, "Where art thou?" This was the first question put to man after the fall. God was the preacher then, and there were but two in the congregation. Adam had gone away and hid himself, and we read that he heard the voice of God as he walked through the Garden, calling out "Where art thou?" From that time to the present men have the same faculty of trying to hide their sins. The first thought with a man after he committed a sin was as to how he could conceal it; just as if anything could be hidden from God! Many of us have asked ourselves the question at one time or another. It did not matter much, however, what we thought of ourselves as regarded our standing in the eyes of our fellowmen. The most important question is, How do I stand in the eye of God? We may divide this audience into fifty classes, but God sees only two—those who are for Him and those who are against Him. He (the speaker) would like to make three divisions of the audience—professing Christians, backsliders and unconverted men. He would say to the professing Christian, "Where art thou?" Let their minds go back over the years since their conversion and see what was the effect of their influence, whether it was a good or bad. Does their neighbor know whether they are children of God, or would they have to go and consult the records of some church and see if their names were written there? The professing church of God is the greatest obstacle to the conversion of sinners. Christians, instead of being witnesses to the truth, were for the most part false witnesses; professors in name, yet in the world. He was once on business in a little town in Illinois and found it greatly stirred over the death of a prominent local merchant. Before his death the Doctor spoke to him about his soul. "Why," said the merchant, "I have known you for a great many years, and why, if there is any reality in the Christian religion, did you put off speaking about it until now?" The words "Why did you not tell me before?" kept ringing in the Doctor's ears. He went next day to tell the merchant it was not yet too late, but the latter said it was, and he died unconverted. The Doctor could never forgive himself for not speaking about Christ to his friend during the many years of his intimate acquaintance with him. How many came to the Rink night after night, and perhaps the man sitting next to them is weeping; yet when the services are over they take up their hats and walk out. The cry has gone abroad, "Am I my brother's keeper?" Nine out of every ten Christians are stumbling blocks in the way of unbelievers. Said a young man to his friend the other night, "This Christianity is all sham; they are all hypocrites." "Why," replied his friend, "You would not call your mother a hypocrite?" "Why, no," said the young man, "but do you think my mother believes what she professes? Do you think if she believes that I am lost that she would never tell of it?" That is the way the world reasons. Men do not read the Bible, but they read Christians, and the latter should be living epistles of God, read and known of all men. If any professing Christian would begin to work they would see a mighty reformation. The churches would be so thronged that people would not be able to get into them. Andrew's first thought, after finding Christ, was to go and seek Peter, and when he had found him he brought him to Jesus. The Church of Christ was asleep and needed a great awakening.

At the conclusion of the speaker's discourse, Mr. Sankey sang a hymn and the benediction was pronounced. An inquiry meeting was afterward held in an adjoining church, and was attended by many people.

MISS TILTON ASKS A LETTER FROM PLYMOUTH CHURCH.

Miss Florence Tilton sent a communication to the Plymouth Church Committee to-night, asking for a letter of dismissal from the church.

BROOKLYN TAXPAYERS AFTER OFFICIALS AND CONTRACTORS.

There was considerable excitement this evening, in certain circles, in consequence of a rumor of the presentation to the Attorney General of papers and evidence looking to the indictment of certain officials and contractors in Brooklyn. The papers emanate from prominent taxpayers and from the Taxpayers' Association. Ex-Mayor Booth said to-night that those who were engaged in the movement were in earnest, but at present he could not disclose their action. Whoever had given information in regard to the movement was guilty of a violation of confidence. The papers, he presumed, were now in the hands of the Attorney General, but whether there was sufficient evidence to take action on, he could not say.

MRS. MOULTON AND DEACON WEST DROPPED FROM PLYMOUTH CHURCH ROLL—PARTING SHOT FROM MRS. MOULTON.

At a business meeting of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, last evening, the names of Deacon West and Mrs. Moulton were dropped from the roll of membership, on the ground of continued absence from the church. Deacon West was not present, but Mrs. Moulton was, accompanied by her counsel, Roger A. Pryor, who read a protest signed by Mrs. Moulton, and which closed as follows: "My absence is an enforced one, and is caused by the crime of adultery committed by Henry Ward Beecher, pastor of this church, with one of his parishioners, which I know to be a fact, through Mr. Beecher's confessions to me, through the confessions of Mrs. Tilton, and through conclusive evidence of the crime from other sources. I appear before the church in loyal obedience to a summons which I have received, and I hereby declare my disposition and desire to discharge all the duties devolving on me as a member, that are consistent with my knowledge of the adultery of the pastor and his false swearing in regard to it."

THREATENED CHURCH INVESTIGATION OF THE BEECHER SCANDAL.

The New York and Brooklyn Association of Congregational Ministers has taken action, it is alleged, which will certainly revive the Beecher scandal. A committee of its members has been appointed and instructed to report, after a careful examination of the charges, whether the Association ought to retain Mr. Beecher in membership. It was said last evening that Mr. Beecher would withdraw from the Association rather than submit to an investigation.

PLYMOUTH CHURCH ANXIOUS TO CO-OPERATE WITH MOODY.

Plymouth church has adopted a resolution providing that Mr. Beecher and his deacons confer with Mr. Moody, and that they be authorized, if the evangelist has no objections, to announce the first of a series of daily prayer meetings for next Monday morning. In the discussion of this subject one member said: "Let us show enough Christian spirit to go with the others to the meetings in the Tabernacle. Let us show no desire to stand aloof from sister churches, though they may not be cordial toward us."

INDICTMENT AGAINST H. B. CLAFLIN & CO. SUSTAINED.

Judge Benedict to-day rendered a decision on the motion to quash the criminal indictment against the firm of H. B. Claflin & Co., who were indicted for connection with the silk smuggling frauds. Judge Benedict sustained the indictment, with the exception of the fourth count.

SPAIN ORDERS WAR MATERIAL FROM AMERICA.

The Spanish Government has forwarded to their agents in this city, orders to buy up and ship at once provisions and ammunition to the amount of $500,000. The money for this purpose was contributed in Havana on the 20th ult., upon receipt of telegrams from Madrid, to the effect that American intervention was feared and that all that could be done to deter it was advisable.

THE EXPOSITION.

How Matters are Progressing at the Institute

The attendance at the Exposition was good during all of yesterday and particularly in the evening. It was floral day, and B. A. Elliott & Co. carried off the prize for the best display of cut flowers. The Executive Committee held a meeting yesterday afternoon, but those who expected to see a lively session were disappointed. It seems to be understood that existing differences will not come up for settlement until after the show is over.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

has decided to continue the Exposition another week. In order to test the twenty-five cent plan, as suggested by a number of the patrons of the enterprise at the opening, the price of admission has been reduced to a quarter all round. This will give all those a chance to attend who pledged themselves not to patronize it as long as the price was kept up. If the weather remains favorable a large attendance may be expected.

A STANDARD OF MEASURE.

The merits of everything bought or sold must be estimated by a standard of estimate or measurement, and the purchaser must, in his mind, have a well established standard set up whereby to measure the qualities of what he would buy. No one would purchase a horse who had a doubt as to whether he really knew what a good horse was, or a piano if he hadn't a clear idea of just what the title of a good piano implied; and as to pianos it must be conceded that the Chickering of to-day furnishes a standard with which all other pianos will be compared. One can go no further even in imagination. A Chickering "upright" must remain at the head and front of one's ambition in the piano line.

Nothing better can be hoped for by the the most sanguine, and all other pianos, in the purchasers' estimation, instantly finds their proper level, or their value, as compared with this standard. Such a decision is resultant from a visit to Mellor & Hoene's piano warerooms, 79 Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh, and a short time spent in the presence of these remarkable instruments.

The result of that great Boston firm's labor, and of its fifty years' experience and ever increasing skill, has embodied in some freshly arrived pianos that are perfection from finish and quality of tone. None of our readers should omit calling on Messrs. Mellor and Hoene and seeing a Chickering "Upright."

THE LIFE OF ELOQUENCE

is a rare one indeed. Cicero and Demosthenes moved hosts by their words and swayed the hearts of vast multitudes by that wonderful gift, eloquence of tongue. In these days such gifts are rare and we are led to believe that in the walnut case of a Mason & Hamlin organ there is more eloquence of tongue (though that tongue be of brass) than in nine-tenths of the modern orators. Such thoughts were aroused by hearing a skillful performer in Mellor & Hoene's large warerooms, 79 Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh, the deft blending of the vox humana, celeste, flute, sub-bass and other stops made a melodious whole most acceptable to the ear. Surely no family in this broad land can afford to dispense with such an angel in the household, as is a Mason & Hamlin parlor organ, and to possess one does not seem to imply an outlay proportionate to the value received. The monthly installment plan meets with great favor, and these beautiful instruments are being shipped to all points of the compass; and they are destined to gladden many a merry home, hitherto a stranger to such a concourse of sweet sounds as can be brought from a Mason & Hamlin by even an ordinary performer.

EIGHTH FLORAL DAY.

The only premium offered for display of floral work was awarded to Benj. A. Elliott & Co. They exhibited a large number of pieces, worth in the aggregate at least $300. We noticed an anchor, harp, lyre and a Masonic emblem most artistically made up of the choicest flowers. The beautiful design of an anchor, on which was perched a pure white dove, was truly magnificent.

J. R. & A. MURDOCH'S DISPLAY.

Yesterday was the eighth floral day. It was the last of the series, and Messrs Murdoch made an exhibition of flowers superior to anything Pittsburgh has ever seen. It was composed in part as follows: A large floral center piece for a dining table, a cornucopia, a harp, two exquisite bouquets, a heart, seven large baskets of various shapes, a cradle, a pillow and dove, which was a superb piece of work, and suspended above all was an immense eagle, over four feet from tip to tip, all in white flowers and rosebuds, while grasped in his claws was a card bearing the significant words: "WE HAVE TAKEN 17 FIRST PREMIUMS ON PLANTS AND 14 OF THE 19 FIRST PREMIUMS OFFERED FOR CUT FLOWERS."

A SWINDLER.

Another Rascal Passing Himself Off as a Canvassing Agent for the "Weekly Commercial"—Look Out for Him.

The following letter was received at this office yesterday, dated Brockwayville, Jefferson county, Pa., and signed by a lady whose name it is not necessary to give:

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

"A man calling himself J. B. Ross is going through the country, getting subscribers for the WEEKLY COMMERCIAL at one dollar per year, and giving therewith a lottery ticket calling for a sewing machine and different articles. He warrants the sewing machine for nine years. Is he an authorized agent of yours? Please let us know, and besides conferring on us a favor you will oblige many citizens of Jefferson county."

We have repeatedly warned people to have no dealings with persons representing themselves to be traveling agents or canvassers for the COMMERCIAL, as none such are employed. When it is necessary to send a man out on business for the office, he is furnished with proper credentials. The fellow who is operating in Jefferson county is a swindler and should be arrested wherever caught in his disreputable game. The subscription price of the WEEKLY COMMERCIAL is $1 75 per year, postage paid, and any one offering it at a dollar and promising in addition a sewing machine may be set down as a first-class fraud.

FINANCE COMMITTEE.

A Short Session—Routine Business.

The regular monthly meeting of the Finance Committee was held yesterday afternoon, Mr. Shipton in the chair.

Mr. Littell offered a resolution providing that the taxes erroneously assessed against St. Joseph's Orphan Assylum amounting to $124, be refunded. Passed.

A petition from the Home for Friendless, on Chatham street, for exoneration from assessment for the construction of a sewer on Try street, was not allowed.

Hussey, Binns & Co. were allowed an abatement of $135 on taxes.

The following petitions for abatement and refunding of taxes were referred: Messrs. Brown, Colbourn & Co., John White, Wm. Gauf, B. McGinnis, E. Levy and G. Y. McLaughlin.

The following were allowed: George Swallows, Home for Destitute Men, Lizzie Seigle, reduced fifty per cent.; William Wincher fifty per cent., and John Wellinger.

All petitions for exemption from business tax, including that of the Metropolitan National Bank, were referred to the city attorney. The bank claims that this tax has been imposed upon it since it became a National bank, which are exempt under the law.

A number of bills were ordered to be paid. There being no further business, the committee adjourned.

RISING SUN FLOUR

HOLMES AT THE EXPOSITION.

His Display of a "Straight" Article—A Word About His Large Business in this City and Elsewhere.

The attention of the visitor to the Exposition is arrested, soon after he enters the building, by a handsome pyramid formed of barrels. Upon the head of each vessel are emblazoned the name and trade mark of that extensive manufacturer and dealer in pure rye whiskies, William H. Holmes. This name is the synonym of every term which implies honesty, integrity and "squareness" in dealings with those who patronize the great establishment on Water street and First avenue, where Mr. Holmes carries on his business. As to the display at the Exposition, it comprises nothing but the liquors actually manufactured by Mr. Holmes, and presents a fair and honest sample of the goods furnished to customers. It cannot be said of this house, as, unfortunately, it can be said of many others, that they keep on hand as samples goods of a better quality than those comprised in the stock from which the orders of their patrons are filled. The Holmes whisky is manufactured under the personal supervision of the proprietor, and is warranted as absolutely pure—entirely free of any adulteration. If there be one among the readers of this article who doubts the assertion respecting the purity of the Holmes whisky he can easily satisfy himself by a thorough test, in which investigation the proprietor will take great pleasure in rendering all the aid in his power. In fact, Mr. Holmes would be delighted at an opportunity of this kind, being confident that a careful qualitative analysis will furnish abundant proofs as to the strict purity of his whisky.

HOLMES' WAREHOUSE.

A remark or two concerning the extensive warehouse of Mr. Holmes, in this city, will be in place just here. The house is located at No. 117 Water street and No. 154 First avenue, extending from one street to the other, and is four stories high. There is not another house in the city so extensively engaged in handling straight whisky, of their own manufacture. So great is the supply kept on hand that the large warehouse is always filled to its utmost capacity, and often it is found necessary to procure additional facilities for the purpose of storage. The trade in this popular brand of whisky has become so great in this city alone—not to mention other localities—that increased facilities for its manufacture have constantly been demanded and supplied, until now the proprietor can boast one of the largest and best distilleries in the country.

Although the specialty of Mr. Holmes' establishment is the pure rye whisky of his own manufacture, he keeps on hand a large stock of other liquors of choice brands, comprising imported wines, brandies, gins, champagnes, etc., to which the attention of the trade is called. These goods are sold at very reasonable figures, while at the same time their genuineness is guaranteed. No order filled at this house has yet failed to give entire satisfaction, and we feel warranted in promising that those who patronize Mr. Holmes will be fairly and honorably dealt with. We therefore cordially recommend that gentleman to the consideration of all who contemplate an investment in pure liquors.

Mr. Holmes, in consenting to place his whisky on exhibition, did so with the distinct understanding that it should be rated in the class of pure rye whisky, in which class he is confident of his ability to eclipse all competition. He does not propose to permit the strictly pure rye whisky made at his distillery to be ranked in the same class with rectified and adulterated goods. In the matter of straight whisky he courts a thorough test of his display, and is willing to abide by the verdict of competent judges.

RELIGIOUS ANNOUNCEMENTS.

REV. C. H. A. BULKLEY, of Canandaigua, N. Y., will preach in the Third Presbyterian church, Sixth avenue, to-morrow morning and evening.

REV. J. HOLLINGSHEAD will preach for the Methodist Society at the school house, Hazelwood, to-morrow (Sunday) at two and half o'clock.

REV. A. MCGLAUGHLIN, of Michigan, will preach in the Lutheran church, corner of Stockton avenue and Arch street, Allegheny, to-morrow morning and evening.

REV. R. W. PEARSON, D.D., preaches to-morrow morning and evening, at Fourth Avenue Baptist church, on "A Model for Men of Business" and "Modern Miracles."

REV. A. J. ROWLAND, of Philadelphia, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, will preach one of the sermons at the dedication of the Fourth Avenue church.

REV. HENRY KIRKE WHITE, of New York, will occupy the pulpit of the Universalist church to-morrow morning. Subject: "The Rock of Our Salvation." Rev. Miss Chapin will preach in the evening. Subject: "If Universalism is True."

PREACHING to-morrow, Sabbath, November 7th, in the Lawrenceville United Presbyterian Mission (Seventeenth ward school hall, Fortieth street), by the Rev. John G. Brown, D.D., at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Sabbath school meets at two P. M.

ON the evening of Sunday, November 14th, the missionary meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association of our city will be held in the First Presbyterian church. Hon. John V. Farwell, of Chicago, will be present and address the meeting, and also one of our city pastors.

QUARTERLY meeting services will be held in the Second Methodist church (Dr. Cowl's), corner Fifth avenue and Marion street, to-morrow. Preaching in the morning by the pastor, when the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. Love feast in the afternoon and preaching in the evening by Rev. Reese Murray.

FOR several years the second Sunday of November has been observed as a day of prayer for Young Men's Christian Associations. At the "World's Conference" of these Associations, held in Hamburg, Germany, in August of this year, it was unanimously resolved to continue this custom, and, in addition, that the week following should be observed as a week of special prayer for young men. Arrangements are being made for its observance in our city.

Matrimonial.

It will be seen by reference to the appropriate column, elsewhere, that another of our promising young merchants has done the handsome thing and taken unto himself a wife. Our friend William W. Wilson, of the well known wholesale grocery firm of John Wilson & Sons, was married on Thursday evening, at Bell's Mills, Blair county. Why Billy had to go from home to procure a partner for life we don't know; but we do know that he has done himself credit in his choice, and with hosts of friends we heartily congratulate the young couple, and with them long life and enjoyment. On the occasion of the interesting event there was a goodly company, composed of relatives and friends of the bride and groom; and it was a very pleasant gathering indeed. The happy couple have gone South on a wedding trip, but their hosts of Pittsburgh friends will soon have an opportunity to tender congratulations.

The Commercial.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1875.

PERSHING ran behind his ticket in Johnstown, where he used to live. HARTRANFT, on the other hand, had a majority in his own county of Montgomery, although it is usually Democratic by from 400 to 800.

THE Rev. Mr. BROWNE demonstrated to his own satisfaction and that of some of his hearers, during the late campaign, that the Republican party was dead; but the facts seem to be against him. That party appears to be the only live one of the three.

THE Indiana Democrats propose to nominate DANIEL W. VOORHEES for Governor, in next year's race, and the Indianapolis Journal says that, in that event, "the Republicans will make a more than usual earnest fight to defeat him. The chances are that they will nominate a man who can do it most handsomely."

IN SNYDER county, on Tuesday, members of the Dunkard and Mennonite congregations, who had not voted for twenty years, came out and cast their ballots unanimously for HARTRANFT and RAWLE and the whole Republican ticket. The deep interest they take in the school question operated to bring them out on this occasion. They are determined that, whatever happens, school shall keep.

THE Cincinnati Commercial has heretofore been disposed to deride the idea that the Pope's big toe was being obtruded into our politics; now the Commercial says:

> Father Henning, of St. Louis, and other Ultramontanists, need only to keep preaching that "there is no such thing as an absolute independence of the State from the Church," and that such separation "is simply political atheism," to arouse a prejudice that may be not only inconvenient, but uncomfortable. The politicians need not lift their fingers to assist in stimulating it into intense activity.

THE Chicago Times, writing of the results of the November elections, says:

> "There was a great deal of very valuable Presidential material spoiled yesterday. Bayard, in New Jersey; Gaston, in Massachusetts; Taylor, in Wisconsin; Tilden, in New York; and Black, and Costveri, and Woodward, in Pennsylvania."

BAYARD lives in Delaware, not in New Jersey, and WOODWARD died some months ago; but who in the name of PONTIUS PIOLLET is COSTVERI? We live to learn; but this new name is a step ahead of our knowledge.

IN LOOKING over the field, in Pennsylvania, there is no result more gratifying than the Republican victory in Allegheny county. The adverse result of last year made it up-hill work to bring the county back to its place. The Democrats, besides, were confident of carrying it, and they boasted so much abroad of the great gains they expected here, that our friends were rendered uneasy and fearful. Our people here, were always strong in the faith of their ability to redeem the county; but they could not quiet the fears of those who were disturbed by Democratic boasting. Our victory, under the many adverse circumstances we had to contend with, is a splendid instance of what pluck and work will accomplish.

THE reports lately circulated from Washington city that the President was about to take active measures in behalf of the insurgents in Cuba, turn out to be fabrications. They were got up by the holders of Cuban bonds, and the chief purpose of circulating them was to embroil this country in trouble with Spain. It is always safe to conclude, in the face of such stories as these, that the President will do nothing that would have the effect of disturbing our friendly relations with Spain. He has too keen a sense of the horrors of war to permit him to do anything that would bring on a national conflict. The President probably thinks, as nearly every thinking man does, that Cuba should of right belong to the United States; but he is not and cannot be willing to strive to get possession of it at the cost of millions of money and thousands of lives. Cuba will be ours in due course of time, if we only have the patience to wait till the proper opportunity comes. That opportunity has not yet come, and the President is not so foolish as to anticipate it.

THE Democrats have carried Maryland by instituting a reign of terror. In no other way could they succeed. They were conscious of being in the minority; but they were in power; and they used their power in the most shameful way to secure their retention in office. The Baltimore American says:

> "On Monday night every colored man that was seen on the streets was called a 'repeater,' and was assaulted and brutally beaten. On Tuesday morning the ruffians appeared at the voting precincts to which they had been assigned, and with the old cry of 'repeater' knocked down any colored voter that dared approach the polls. These brutal and murderous assaults were kept up during the whole day in some of the wards, the police either remaining entirely inactive or assisting the rowdies. Whenever any considerable body of colored men got into line and attempted to reach the polling window in turn, they were assailed with pistols, clubs and stones, and, as a matter of course, they ran away, some of them seriously wounded, and all of them terribly frightened. In the afternoon the colored people having ceased to attempt to vote, the ruffians organized into gangs, and marched from ward to ward trying to incite riots, and beating all the negroes they chanced to meet. But the hired ruffians of the ring did not expend all their malice on the colored voters. Hundreds of white Reformers who dared to protest against the frauds which were unblushingly perpetrated by the minions of the ring were knocked down and beaten, the police encouraging rather than preventing the assaults. In the lower wards of the city the Reformers abandoned the contest early in the day, and the ruffians were left to count the votes and fix the majorities to suit themselves. At some of the precincts they returned twice as many votes as were actually cast for their candidates, but they might have made the majorities five times as large without encountering the least opposition. Reformers were afraid to be seen standing about the polls, and they prudently went home."

THE THIRD TERM.

The New York Herald has resurrected the ghost of the third term, which was months ago laid to rest, and quite a number of papers seem to be scared by it. They regard the result of the November elections as such an encouragement to GRANT that they conclude he must be a candidate for re-election. They take it for granted that, notwithstanding the President's letter to General HARRY WHITE, he is really a candidate for the Republican nomination in 1876, and they reason that a Republican victory, now, paves the way for his success next year.

The whole of this morbid fear grows out of the belief, so much encouraged of late by the "independent" press, that party professions are not to be trusted, no matter how often declared. The fact is admitted by them that the Republican State Conventions of Pennsylvania and Ohio, New York and Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Wisconsin, Minnesota and Connecticut, Kansas and Iowa have unanimously proclaimed their hostility to a third term for any President; but, they argue, this is mere profession and means nothing. When the time comes it will be disregarded, they say; and, upon the assumption that there is no such thing as honesty or consistency in politics, they proceed to work themselves up into an indignant frenzy of apprehension that GRANT will be able, eventually, to overcome the scruples of those who are now committed against him. A Philadelphia paper, for instance—not the Times—expresses its terror on this subject in this wise:

> "Grant will go into the next Republican convention with a united South, and it may be with enough Northern delegates to give him a majority for nomination."

There are a great many things which may be, which are yet not very likely to happen. It is one of the possibilities that GRANT may be a candidate for renomination, and that he may get enough Northern votes to nominate him; but it is extremely improbable. The fear that such an event may happen is an idle one, and it is not worth while to get into a passion of excitement over what may possibly occur.

For, in the first place, the South will not be a unit for GRANT in the next National Convention. We think we can enumerate at least three or four Southern States that will have more sense than that implies. And in the next place, even if he had a united South at his back, he cannot get enough Northern votes to nominate him. Notwithstanding the sneers to the contrary of the political sceptics who scout at the sincerity of Republican declarations on this point, the Republicans of the North were never more in earnest, on any subject, than they were in putting themselves on record against the third term folly. Those who were at the Lancaster Republican State Convention in May last will easily recall the deep earnestness which characterized that convention in protesting against the idea of a third Presidential nomination. When the anti-third-term plank was read, the convention burst into an enthusiastic shout of approval, which was repeated again and again, until finally it had to be read a second time, and was received with a second tumultuous storm of applause. There was no such thing as mistaking the meaning and purpose of that convention. It meant what it said upon that subject, and it meant to make itself plainly understood. It was in deep earnest; and the Republican victory of November 2d has been won with the fair and clear understanding that the party was committed unalterably to the anti-third term policy.

The same was true of all the other Northern States. In each one of them the hostility to a third term was deep, unyielding and unfaltering. No party was ever more thoroughly committed to a political principle than is the Republican party to its declarations on this point; and its written creed upon it is but the outward form of a conviction conscientiously cherished in the hearts of the Republican masses. The Republican party has never yet been false to its professions; and it is not at all likely that it can be induced, upon any consideration whatever, to abandon a principle which sprang, not from any clap-trap demagogism, but from the sincere and heartfelt convictions of its members.

The Republican party, in this or any other matter, is not to be judged by the acts of the Democratic party. That party has shown itself capable of reversing its own creed within the short space of a year; but we protest against measuring our corn in its bushel. The Republicans of the country are devoted to their principles and will stand by them. They have resolutely declared the doctrine that no President should have more than two terms, and they mean to act upon that basis when the time comes for nominating their next candidate for President.

In doing this they have acted, of course, upon the belief that the President, in his letter to General WHITE, meant precisely what he said—that he was not and will not be a candidate for a third nomination. Their course, therefore, was not personal to him. They took him at his word, and, without reference to him at all, planted themselves firmly on the ground that the common law of the country forbids more than two terms to any President whatever. We, in common with them, regard the President as being out of the field. He is not a candidate, and will not be. We have his word for that, and we believe him. These remarks, consequently, have no specific reference to him. The fear that the President has a design to run for a third nomination is a mere bugaboo. It may frighten children, but can have no effect upon grown men; and the Republican party is so strongly entrenched in its hostility to a third nomination, that we are firm in the conviction the President could not, if he would, compass a renomination; and we are just as firm in the belief he would not if he could.

PERSONAL.

Ex-Speaker Blaine has started on a tour of the British Provinces, accompanied by his wife, Miss Mary A. Dodge (Gail Hamilton) and the Hon. Eugene Hale and wife.

It is stated that M. Offenbach, the well known composer, is to visit Philadelphia next summer. He is expected to arrive in New York on the first of June, where he will give a series of concerts.

James Fair, a member of the great firm of Mackey, Flood & O'Brien, used to be called "Lying Jim Fair" and "Slippery Jim" a few years ago, but he is now worth $10,000,000, and the people call him "Col. Fair."

Mrs. Peet, of Blue Hill avenue, Boston, discovered a burglar in her house one Thursday night, and quietly went to the police station, a quarter of a mile away, and informed police offices, who returned with her and found the burglar under a bed.

John Arnold Lilly, an undergraduate of Cambridge University, England, and the son of a clergyman, has been sentenced to six months' hard labor for having stolen a gold nugget, a silver coin, and other articles, from the Albert Memorial Museum in Exeter.

Professor Swing announced at the close of his sermon on Sunday last that his connection with the Fourth Presbyterian church of Chicago, of which he has been pastor for several years, would terminate on or before the close of the year. He expects soon to organize an independent church in that city.

There is a remarkable waiter at a hotel in Antwerp. He waits at the table with great attention and receives the smallest fee with gratitude, yet he has hanging up in one of the rooms of the same hotel pictures worth at least $150,000. Among them are works of Teniers, Vandyke, and other famous artists, all undoubted originals.

Glover, the musician and composer, died in New York last week, in extreme poverty, and leaves a wife and eleven children. He was a composer of more than ordinary ability and, at one time, of much popularity. He wrote the recitative for the "Lily of Kellarney," which is part of the repertoire of the Kellogg Opera Troupe.

Sham Law Diplomas in Washington.

The Boston Post's special dispatch from Washington says:

> "One of the many institutions of this city which have some kind of mysterious existence is called the 'National University Law School.' It has its headquarters in an out-of-the-way garret, and it appears to have done quite an extensive business in selling diplomas. The whole faculty, it is alleged, consists of one man, whose name often appears in print as Chancellor Wedgewood. To give the so called university some kind of a standing, Judge Snell, of the Police Court, has given several lectures on criminal law. Another of our judges has also been caught in the trap, and now regrets that he ever had anything to do with the swindle. It is openly charged in print and otherwise that this man Wedgewood has carried on an extensive business in the sale of diplomas, and the matter is now being investigated. Some time sice one Kodamma, a Japanese connected with the legation here, began to study law in the office of Fisher, then District Attorney. After about three months he concluded to return to his home, and applied to several of our law colleges to purchase a diploma, but was unsuccessful. Hearing of Wedgewood and his 'National University,' he called upon him, and in half an hour he was fully graduated as a lawyer, and after paying his money he left, armed with a diploma. The members of the bar are naturally much exercised over this fraud, and intend to have its perpetrators properly punished. One of the Sunday papers says all that was necessary to become a lawyer under Wedgewood's training was to purchase a book published by him on Government and the Laws and buy a diploma. It has never been claimed that there was any faculty connected with the university, which has, according to all accounts, graduated over one hundred lawyers, and the greatest surprise is expressed that it was not exposed long since."

Foreign Trade of Philadelphia.

During the month of October the total domestic exports from the port of Philadelphia to foreign countries amounted to $2,421,975, of which $1,452,070 was shipped in foreign vessels and $967,904 in American; $899,698 going to England, $476,181 to Belgium, $285,040 to Germany, $264,917 to Ireland, $83,706 to France, $75,575 to Gibraltar, $75,779 to Venezuela, $66,685 to British West Indies, and $40,925 to Cuba. Of the commodities shipped there were: Refined petroleum, $765,087; provisions, $358,592; corn, $270,913, cotton, $285,277; leather and manufactures of, $80,859; flour, $76,177, naptha, $75,135; wheat, $67,118; tallow, $68,029; leaf tobacco, $61,300; oil cake, $52,816; crude petroleum, $1,681; iron manufactures, $2,498; hides, $26,333; drugs and chemicals, $28,089.—North American.

WE hope the Democratic papers will endeavor to get their nerves quieted down a little, now that the election is over. Some of them seem to be oppressed by the most horrible nightmares. Thus we read in the Express:

> "A word to the future: If General Grant takes possession of the national party convention next year, and procures a nomination, the resultt of Tuesday's elections show that not even New York Republicans will dare to lead off in opposition to him."

The Express ought not to alarm itself with these dreadful bogies, especially at its time of life. A change of air and a gentle tonic will soon enable it to recover from its shock of Tuesday. We can assure it that General Grant will not "take possession of the National Convention" next year, will "not procure a nomination," and consequently need not be so great an object of terror to the editor of the Express. The Democrats cannot win any more elections on the "third-term" cry. A pretty party it must be, when this is all it has to fall back upon the day after a tremendous defeat! Anybody would think that it was led exclusively by a bevy of old women, whose nerves were all broken down by a prolonged indulgence in "laced tea."—New York Times.

THE MOTHER'S ADVICE TO HER DAUGHTER.

My girl you must not fall in love
 With virtue or with wit:
Unless there's rank, or money too,
 To gild the pill a bit.
Wit's but a frothy thing at best,
 And virtue stale becomes;
Stick to the solid pudding, Jane,
 And marry for the plums!

Nor let good looks beguile your heart,
 To throw itself away;
What, after all's, a handsome face?
 'Twill wrinkle up some day.
Gray hairs will show, eyes will grow dull,
 When man's cold winter comes;—
Stick to the solid pudding, Jane,
 And marry for the plums!

Don't ever let me hear you say
 A word of "mutual flame:"
That's not the way to win the trick,
 In matrimony's game.
Besides, such flame, though hot at first,
 Soon dim and quenched becomes;
Stick to the solid pudding, Jane,
 And marry for the plums!

Love's very well, for wanton bards,
 Your Ovids, Moores, to sing,
But for a girl that's well brought up,
 'Tis an indecent thing.
I never loved your father, child,
 Just ask him; here he comes;—
Stick to the solid pudding, Jane,
 And marry for the plums!

I know a youthful face has charms,
 For girls just fresh from school,
But oh! I hope no child of mine
 Will be so great a fool!
Young men are often wild and gay,
 Old age discreet becomes;—
Stick to the solid pudding, Jane,
 And marry for the plums!

'Tis very well for vulgar folks,
 To talk of hearts and darts;
But girls like you, should be above
 Such sentimental parts.
A knock! it is that man so rich—
 Though he has toothless gums;
Stick to the solid pudding, Jane,
 And marry for the plums!

Just move that ringlet, love, and as,
 You, sit, take care to show
That pretty foot, blush—if you can—
 That's it! you're perfect so!
I'll leave you to receive the beau—
 Here old Sam Liquorish comes;
Stick to the solid pudding, Jane,
 And marry for the plums!

GENERAL AND PARTICULAR.

"Hartranft for President," is a word found frequently on the tongues of Republicans.

The shoe business at Warren, Mass., is picking up, and the West Warren cotton mills run six days a week instead of five.

The sales of short-horn cattle, at the annual cattle sales held this fall, aggregated 1,143 head, and netted the sum of $465,990.

It was Voltaire who said: It is more easy to write about money than to have it; and those who have it laugh at those who can only write about it.

A Chinese mandarin showed his wife how to light a fire with American kerosene and her experience will be of considerable aid to her second husband.

"What does 'Good Friday' mean?" asked one school boy of another. "You had better go home and read your 'Robinson Crusoe,'" was the withering reply.

A woman purchasing some cups and saucers was asked what color she would have? "Why, I ain't particular," said she; "any color that won't show dirt."

One hundred feet of a Swiss railroad have sunk into the Lake of Zurich. A whole railroad station is expected to follow. Then they will have a subaqueous line complete.

The original hemlock log foundations of Long Wharf, at Boston, were unearthed a few days ago, and found to be as solid as when first put down, one hundred and sixty-four years ago.

"Piety," remarked an Arkansas preacher to his congregation the other day, "does not consist in noise. The Lord can see you give to the needy just as easily as He can hear you pray the roof off."

Professor Henry discovered two new planets on Tuesday night, of the twelfth magnitude. They are to be called Massachusetts and New Jersey, in honor of the redemption of those two States.

The Guibord excitement at Montreal reveals the fact that Horace Greeley once lectured before the "Institut Canadien" of that city, and was brought under the ban of the Catholic Church for so doing.

An honest resident of Skowhegan, Me., who had been attending a crowded meeting of his fellow townsmen, was astonished, on reaching home, to find another man's watch and chain dangling from a button at the back of his coat.

A little fellow only nine years old was arrested in England a few days ago for causing the death of a little girl eleven years old. He struck her in the stomach with his clenched fist, and she dropped immediately, dying soon after.

Tweed has had more time granted him in the suit to recover $6,000,000. The trial now goes over to the December term. It is hardly possible there will be any further postponement, as it is quite clear now that nothing is to be gained thereby.

There is a constant stream of emigrant wagons passing through Missouri. Most of them are from Illinois and Indiana, but some are from Kentucky and Tennessee, with scattering ones from other States. Nearly all are going to Texas, with a few to Arkansas.

The claret of 1875 promises to be a wine of exceptional excellence. Though the yield of 1874 was a large one, that of 1875 will be much larger, and the vine-growers have seldom had a finer year, the weather having been propitious and the fermentation satisfactory.

Colonel Forney announces that Mr. John Crossley, M. P., and Mr. N. V. Squarey, two English capitalists noted for commercial shrewdness and energy, have taken charge of a scheme for organizing annual excursions of English capitalists to this country to investigate American investments.

In the new Constitution of Alabama there is a provision that all banks organized in that State must have a specie basis, and all their notes must be redeemed in silver and gold. Suspension of specie payments is forbidden, and bank charters are granted only for twenty years. The loaning of the State or municipal credit to individuals is forbidden.

An exchange apologizingly asks: "Won't somebody invent some kind of a button-hole for campaign purposes that will stand the strain of candidates' fingers. Something metallic, that will stand wear and tear, or, better still, an electrical button-hole, something that would make an office-seeker feel as though he had been struck by lightning if he touched it?"

Fifty thousand Herzegovinese women and children have sought refuge on Montenegrin territory. Thirty thousand more are in Dalmatia; twenty-five thousand more in Servia, and about forty thousand in Croatia. In consequence of this wholesale emigration, and the practice of burning villages, observed by Turk and Christian alike, Herzegovina is fast getting depopulated.

The English Iron Trade.

The stoppage of work at the collieries and iron works of Blockow, Vaughan & Co., the largest iron producers in England, is a striking evidence of the depression of that branch of English trade. At the same time, it shows that the prostration has reached a point at which employers deem it necessary to diminish stocks and call upon their employees to bear a part of the burthens. The depression in the English iron trade is perhaps more severe than in any other branch; but nearly every department of business is also suffering. A process of industrial and commercial reaction has set in their similar to that from which we have been suffering for two years and arising from the same fundamental causes. The process began later there than here; but it must run the same course. We have apparently completed the process of reducing wages in the more important branches of trade; England is now beginning it; and the suspension of work by the great firm alluded to is a step in that direction. It is a notice to the ten thousand employees of the firm that, if production is to be continued, wages must be reduced; and the firm probably took this method of announcing the fact not only because it was likely to be the most effectual, but also because it would afford them an opportunity of diminishing large accumulations of their product. Their action is not to be regarded as in any sense an evidence of financial weakness; for the firm is considered one of the wealthiest in the iron trade of England.

This precedent, set by the largest works in the country, will no doubt be readily followed by others, and we may expect to hear of a crisis in this branch of trade. Some may not be able to bear the partial liquidation that attends such a step, and all such producers must suffer; but there can be no doubt the course adopted is calculated to restore affairs to a normal basis with the least delay. To our own trade, this will not be the most welcome news, as it means a reduction in the price of British iron with which they will have to compete. —New York Bulletin.

Burglars are still depredating in Harrisburg. They appear to be inexperienced.

Mr. Anthony Ash, of Jenner township, Somerset county, has had a horse shot and a colt poisoned, within a few months.

Henry Glass, a bricklayer, fifty-five years old, was drowned in the canal at Birdsboro, Berks county, a few days ago.

A nine year old daughter of Frederick King, of Lancaster, died of lock-jaw from a wound received in one of her hands a short time before.

H. C. Bergner, of Lebanon, proposes to erect a $100,000 monument in Fairmount Park, 100 feet high, of thirteen blocks representing the original States.

A Harrisburg beggar family have money out at interest, and had to move into a larger house because the old one would not hold their household goods.

The Somerset papers state that the "hog cholera" appears to be on the increase in several townships over there, and many porkers are dying from the disease.

John McVeigh shot Anthony McHale at Minersville on Tuesday in a political dispute. McVeigh maintains that he acted it self-defense. McHale's injuries are dangerous.

In Tobey township, Clarion county, a Mr. Kissengen, by two wives, has had thirty-two children, and he is a hale and hearty old fellow withal. Nine of his children were burned up at one time a few years ago.

Andrew Larue, of Doylestown, deceased, was Chief Burgess, and formerly the Democratic State Treasurer. He was a self-made man, and leaves considerable real estate. He did much for the improvement of the borough.

Mr. Philip Sheppard, aged one hundred and one years, walked to the polls in the fifth division of the Fourteenth ward, Philadelphia, on the 2d instant, and voted the straight Republican ticket. Philip is a good Sheppard.

Mr. Caleb Robinson, of Todd township, Huntingdon county, celebrated his 102d birthday on the 2d inst. He is still hale and hearty, and, if spared, will visit the Centennial next year. On the 21st of October last he made 250 shingles.

Abraham Eshleman, of Lancaster county, attempted on Monday to drive his dog away from a hog with the butt of his gun. The firearm was discharged, and the contents entered his bowels, producing injuries that resulted fatally during the day.

It is stated that sheep stealing is extensively practiced in the northern part of Indiana county. It is supposed there are a number of parties engaged in the business, and that they are thoroughly organized. Measures are being taken to catch up the thieves.

On Friday last a little daughter of Mrs. Thos. McGowan, of Oxford, Chester county, was suddenly killed by the lodgment of a hickory nut in her throat. The children were eating nuts when the little one, aged about two years, put a whole nut in her mouth and choked on it.

Within the past six years $131,000 has been raised for new Methodist churches on the lake shore between Girrard and Fredonia, as follows: Girard, $35,000; Erie, 10th street, $10,000; Ripley, $14,000; Westfield, $32,000; Portland, $12,000; Fredonia, $28,000. In Presiding Elder Warren's district last year was raised $25,000 for church building purposes, and increase in salaries is reported to the amount of $2,500. In view of the hard times, this is a healthy exhibit.

Some two years ago a little daughter of John B. Searles, of Pottstown, swallowed a pin. Everything that medical skill could suggest was done to remove the pin, but without avail. At least it was believed that it still remained, for the reason that the child soon became ill, and remained unwell up to within a few days ago, when, during a severe spell of coughing, she raised the pin and spit it out. The pin was black as ink, and rusted away until it was scarcely thicker than a hair. The child is now improving rapidly.

An Osceola paper relates a singular case of death from fright, which occurred in Houtzdale, Clearfield county, on Thursday last. Mr. Smith, a farmer, living about six miles from town, drove in on the above morning with a load of farm produce. He had just reached the point above named when the mail train approached rather rapidly. Both horses became at once unmanageable, and the one next to the train reared twice, gave one convulsive shudder, and fell dead immediately. The victim of this fatal fright was a very large, powerful, and valuable animal.

The Bucks County Intelligencer says: "Judge Elwell, of Montour county, recently delivered an opinion declaring that the act of last April, repealing the Local Option law, did not take from the courts the power and duty of hearing the petitions, remonstrances and evidence in regard to applications for licenses, and of granting or refusing them accordingly. This opinion is directly contrary to those filed by Judge Ross, of Montgomery, and Judge Clayton, of Delaware. The matter ought now to go to the Supreme Court for a definite solution."

The Hazleton News says: "As an instance of the manner in which valuable inventions are sometimes received either by the public or the trade, we have a forcible illustration in hand. Mr. Stephen Engle, a jeweler in Hazleton, invented an appliance to protect watches from dust, that they might last longer and be of less expense for cleaning. The appliance was a perfect success. It operated so effectually that a watch furnished with it might be submitted to the worst exposure in dust or water, for twelve months or longer, and yet its machinery would remain as good and clean as new. Yet he could not introduce it on the market. Watchmakers and jewelers would not buy or sell it, because it took from them the profit of cleansing watches! So that here is one of the most valuable inventions known to the watchmaker's art driven out of the field by watchmakers themselves."

A New Metal.

The New York Journal of Commerce notes the fact that the discovery of an asteroid is thought of sufficient importance to have the news telegraphed around the world, but that the discovery, last month, of a new metal called "Gallium," in honor of France, was not noticed in the cable dispatches. "Gallium" was found by spectrum analysis in zinc, and although its physical properties are not yet known, the Journal, reviewing the history of other metals, such as Aluminium and Magnesium, thinks its discovery a matter of much more prospective importance than the discovery of a new asteroid.

Dragging out Existence.

The nervous, weakly invalid does not enjoy life, but merely "drags out existence," as the phrase is. Unfitted for the active pursuits of life, and incapable of partaking of its pleasures, to which health alone can give a zest; disinclined to social intercourse, and a prey to melancholy, the valetudinarian is indeed an object of pity. Yet there is nothing in all this that cannot be remedied by that genial alterative tonic and nervine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which supplies sufficient stamina, braces the nervous system, and overcomes those bodily irregularities to which nervous weakness is most frequently attributable. Diseases of the kidney and bladder, imperfect digestion and uterine troubles are fertile sources of debility. Their eradication, however, becomes a matter of certainty when Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are systematically used for that purpose. The Bitters likewise annihilate and prevent fever and ague and other debilitating febrile complaints of a malarial nature.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY!
The Cordial Balm of Syricum and Tonic Pills.

NERVOUS DEBILITY.
However obscure the cause may be which contribute to render nervous debility a disease so prevalent, affecting, as it does, nearly one-half of our adult population, it is a melancholy fact that day by day, and year by year, we witness a most frightful increase of nervous affections from the slightest neuralgia to the more grave and extreme forms of

NERVOUS PROSTRATION.
Is characterized by a general languor or weakness of the whole organism, especially of the nervous system, obstructing and preventing the ordinary functions of nature; hence there is a disordered state of the secretions; constipation, scanty and high-colored urine, with an excess of earthy or limey sediment, indicative of waste of brain and nerve substance, frequent palpitations of the heart, loss of memory, and marked irresolution of purpose, and inability to carry into action any well defined business enterprise, or to fix the mind upon any one thing at a time. There is great sensitiveness to impress, though retained but a short time, with a flickering and fluttering condition of the mental faculties, rendering an individual what is commonly called a whiffle-minded, or fickle-minded man.
This condition of the individual, distressing as it is, may, with a certainty, be cured by
THE CORDIAL BALM OF SYRICUM AND LOTHROP'S TONIC PILLS,
Medicines unrivalled for their wonderful properties and remarkable cures of all Nervous Complaints. Their efficacy is equally great in the treatment and cure of Cancers, Nodes, Ulcers, Pastule, Pimples, Tetter, Fever Sores, Ringworm, Erysipelas, Scaldhead, Barbers' Itch, Scurvy, Salt Rheum, Copper-Colored Blothes, Glandular Swelling, Worms and Black Spots in the Flesh, Discolorations, Ulcers in the Throat, Mouth and Nose, Sore Legs, and sores of every character, because these medicines are the very best

BLOOD MEDICINE
Ever placed before the people, and are warranted to be the most Powerful Alterative ever originated by man, removing Morbid Sensibility, Depression of Spirits, Dementia, and Melancholia.
Each package of the Cordial Balm contains one box of the Tonic Pills, which may also be had separately at 50 cents per box.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

FRIDAY EVENING, November 5, 1875.

No events of interest occurred in financial circles to-day, the loan market being steady with a fair amount of commercial bills offering and a moderate volume of counter transactions. Exchange continues easy at par. The principal event in business circles was the rise of the rivers to a stage which permitted the shipment of a large amount of coal. In another column we publish a list of the shipments which includes forty six towboats with 501 barges and coalboats carrying 6,490,000 bushels of coal. This will in course of time increase the supply of funds here about $700,000, which is not an insignificant item in a single day's business. The advices from New York to-day showed little change. Gold closed at 115¼, a net decline of ¼ on yesterday's closing prices, while stocks and bonds were active and firm, and foreign exchange was steadier.

—The policy which finds favor in some quarters of additional taxation upon the banks of the country, would be most injudicious and harmful to the true interests of the nation. That class of politicians who, during the canvass just closed, allowed their peculiar financial views to lead them into attacking the national banks, committed a most grevious error. We have already given official figures showing that the national banks pay taxes amounting to a rate of 3.63 per cent. on their capital, which is as large a rate if not larger than that paid by most classes of property. Great Britain has for many years adopted the policy of exempting banks from direct taxation, and the consequence is that her banking system has been so freely developed as to result in the present enormous and financial power of that nation. While it would hardly be wise to advocate the exemption of our banking system from taxation, it is none the less true that a policy which would make the banking system more easy of access and more attractive to capital at large would be an immense benefit to the business interests of the nation. The New York Bulletin truly says, in connection with this subject, that "in a most material sense the banks are the motive power of commerce. Trade expands or contracts and credit moves smoothly or is crippled, just in proportion as the banks prosper or suffer. There is, in fact, no really active and progressive commerce where banking is systematically discouraged." The same journal calls attention to the fact that in this country capital is always expected to make larger earnings than it does in England, and hence the difference between the two countries in the legal rate of interest; and yet the Comptroller of the Currency shows, in his annual report for 1873, that the average dividends of the national banks of the United States are only 10 per cent. per annum, while those of the principal joint stock banks of London are 15½ per cent. It is thus seen that, in this country, there are not the same inducements to employ capital in this way as have caused the large and wholesome development of banking that has occurred in England. The whole trade of Great Britain has been directly benefited by this exemption of the banks from taxation; ours, on the contrary, has been proportionately injured by the blind policy of making banking unremunerative through excessive imposts.

—A prominent business man of this city recently said that the chief drawback to Pittsburgh's greatness and prosperity was the lack of a proper self esteem on the part of her people as a community. The remark was a true one, and there was never a better illustration, both of the truth of the assertion and the result of the condition stated, than the present. The state of monetary and commercial affairs in this city has undergone some improvement during the past two months, and yet there are still left many features of the situation, which was so often described during the summer, of unemployed capital, depressed manufacturing industries carried on at a loss, old and well established firms failing, and mercantile interests restricted and dwindling into insignificance. Many immediate causes for this state of affairs can be assigned, but ultimately they all resolve themselves into the future of our citizens to properly appreciate the magnificent powers and possibilities of Pittsburgh, and to provide for their fostering and development. Such a spirit would be constantly on the alert to secure for Pittsburgh as a community all the advantages of cheaper transportation, and more wide-spread communication which the intelligent employment of capital can obtain. It is a most painful proof of the absence of such a spirit that during the past year, an amount of capital has been lying idle in the banks, which, if intelligently used, could have been profitably employed, so as to give Pittsburgh that competition in freights which she so much needs, and which would have inspired so much life and energy into all of her dormant interests. We want to see such a spirit aroused in our midst. It is not enough that Pittsburgh is the leading manufacturing city of the nation, with a population of 250,000 people, for she is capable of being much greater. If her leading capitalists and business men will but take the right course, there is no doubt that her manufactures can be greatly increased, and her mercantile and financial power swelled to many times their present importance. Pittsburgh is entitled to such a possition as that described, and she will have it, if the right public sentiment is awakened among her citizens.

—Subjoined is a recent decision of the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts:

Joshua M. Whitcomb vs. James C. Converse et al. The plaintiff and defendants, James C. Converse, Walter Stanton and E. R. Blagden, in January, 1871, formed a partnership under the firm of Converse, Whitcomb & Co., for the transaction of a dry goods commission business in New York and Boston, which was to continue one year. The plaintiff was to contribute $50,000 and his time and services, the defendant Converse $25,000, and the defendants Stanton and Blagden all their time and services, but no capital, to the business. All profits were to be divided equally among the partners, but nothing was said in the agreement about losses. The plaintiff paid $25,000 into the firm, and this was all the capital of the firm. Subsequently in March, 1871, the partnership was dissolved by mutual consent, and resulted in the loss of the $25,000 which the plaintiff had contributed and paid. Blagden has since become insolvent. The plaintiff thereupon brought a bill in equity to compel the defendants as copartners to contribute to the loss. The defendent Stanton contended that as he had agreed to contribute only time and services to the partnership, he could not be held liable for any loss; that such loss must fall wholly upon the capital contributed. He also contended that, even if liable, he could not be called on to contribute any proportion of the share of the insolvent partner. A rescript was recently sent down by the full court as follows: "Decree for the plaintiff and case referred to a master; the solvent partners are bound to contribute equally to the loss of the capital."

Gold Closed at 115¼.

MONEY.

NEW YORK, November 5.—Money 4@5 per cent.; closed easy at 2 per cent. Prime mercantile paper 6@7 per cent. Customs receipts $289,000. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed $842,666. Clearings $48,000,000. Sterling quiet at 480@485¼.

GOLD.

Gold advanced from 115⅜ to 115⅝, fell off to 115⅜ and closed at 115¼. Rates paid for carrying were 1 and 2 per cent.; loans also made flat.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

Government bonds firm with small dealings. In railroad bonds this afternoon there was great activity and buoyancy in Pacific issues. Union firsts advanced to 102⅛, land grants to 98, sinking funds to 85 and Centrals to 103, an improvement of from 1¼ to 4 per cent for the day. Michigan Central sevens sold at 100¾. Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati and Indianapolis firsts at 109, Morris and Essex consolidated firsts at 107. Columbus, Chicago and Indiana Central firsts dropped to 48¼. Northwestern consolidated gold coupons advanced to 87@87¾, with small offerings. The official statement of the earnings and expenses of the Union Pacific Railroad for September shows an increase of $57,000 in net earnings as compared with the same month last year. State bonds quiet. The failure of J. Phillips & Co., fur dealers, was reported this afternoon. The firm was embarrassed by extensive real estate operations and probably their liabilities are large. The Stock Exchange committee having in charge the matter of obtaining regular statements of earnings from those corporations whose shares are dealt in at the Stock Exchange, is making progress, and probably before long an official report will be made to the board. The stock market was irregular in early dealings, but toward noon became strong and prices advanced from ¼ to 1¼ per cent. from the lowest point. Pacific Mail fell off from 38 to 37¾ and rose to 38⅜. Lake Shore fell off to 60¼ and advanced to 60⅞. Union Pacific rose from 62¼ to 63⅜, reacted to 62¾ and recovered to 63. Northwestern common receded from 37⅛ to 36⅝, but afterward rose to 37¼. Western Union advanced from 75¼ to 76, Michigan Central from 61⅜ to 62¼ and Missouri Pacific from 9¾ to 10½. Other changes were slight. There was a decided change for the better at the Stock Exchange in the afternoon and prices advanced in the entire list, the improvement in some cases being very marked. Union Pacific securities were the chief feature of the market, the stock rising 2¾ per cent. and sinking fund besides 4 per cent., with an unusually large business. The result was partially due to the publication of Mr. Bartlett's argument before the Supreme Court in favor of the company. Union Pacific advanced from 61¾ to 65 and closed at 65@65¼. Lake Shore rose from 60¾ to 61⅛ and closed at 61⅜. Pacific Mail advanced from 37⅝ to 39, the latter being the closing price. Northwestern common was more active and firm, and rose from 36⅞ to 37¾, with the last sales at 37⅜. St. Paul common advanced from 34⅛ to 34⅞, preferred from 62⅛ to 63⅜. Western Union from 75⅛ to 76¼, Michigan Central from 61⅜ to 62⅝, Ohio and Mississippi from 16⅛ to 16¾, Erie from 17 to 17⅜ and Hannibal and St. Joseph from 19¼ to 20, closing quotations being the highest made. Transactions at the Stock Exchange 189,000 shares, of which 18,000 were Pacific Mail, 25,000 Western Union, 15,000 Northwestern, 3,600 Columbus, Chicago and Indiana Central, 4,000 Erie, 50,000 Lake Shore and 5,000 Union Pacific.

GENERAL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, }
FRIDAY, November 5, 1875. }

In trade circles generally to-day an average business was transacted, with some an instances in which the volume of transactions rose considerably beyond the usual amount. There was considerable done in breadstuffs and produce at unchanged values. Provisions were rather sluggish and prices were weak, although quotably unchanged. In groceries an active trade was secured with steady values. Other lines of merchandise were active and steady.

The receipts of the leading articles of produce since our last are as follows:

Flour, bbls	1,900	Apples, bbls	5,589
Cheese, bxs	1,221	Corn, bus	1,039
Wheat, bus	2,880	Barley, bus	4,079
Oats, bus	7,777	Butter pkgs	54
Potatoes, bus	3,737	Hay bales	289

The quotations given in the following reports are prices realized in wholesale transactions, unless otherwise specified. On small sales, dealers will charge an advance. Sales of grain, unless stated to the contrary, are free of elevator.

Grain, Flour and Feed.

GRAIN—The market was fairly active with a moderate volume of receipts. Values continue easy but quotably unchanged. Petroleum.

November 6.—A stronger feeling prevailed in the petroleum trade, and an advance was established of about 5c on crude and ⅛c on refined, with a rather quiet but firm market subsequent to the advance.

CRUDE—There was a firm market at advanced quotations. We quote Conduit at wells $1 38¾@1 40; United and Union do $1 37½@1 38; Pennsylvania do $1 35@1 37½; immediate shipment $1 63¾@1 65. Sales of 135,000 barrels were reported.

REFINED—The market was strong at a somewhat improved range of values in sympathy with crude, although the Eastern markets showed no appreciation. We quote standard white on the cars at 10¾@10⅞c. New York rules at 13¼@13⅜c for spot and November. Philadelphia is quoted at 12⅝@13c. Baltimore rules at 12⅛@13c.

OIL BARRELS—Continue sluggish and without change at $1 45 for city; $1 30@1 35 for country.

[By Western Union Telegraph.]

TITUSVILLE, November 5.—The Herald says: There was a very much better tone in the crude petroleum markets of the region, and all of the deliveries underwent a positive advance. Union and United advanced from $1 33¾ bid at the opening to $1 38¾ at the close. Pennsylvania certificates were steady, and advanced from $1 00 bid at the opening to $1 35 at the close. The closing quotations at 9 P. M. were:

IRON MARKETS.

Weekly Review of the Pig Iron and Bloom Market.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, }
SATURDAY, November 6, 1875. }

The operations of the past week do not indicate any improvement in the market for raw irons, and the sales show about the same price as at date of last report.

The arrangement made betwen the boilers and manufacturers, though only fixing the price for thirty days, is considered conclusive that there will be no strike or lockout this winter, though it is not understood that the mills will run steadily unless there is a better demand for manufactured iron and nails than at present.

We are reported the following sales:

BITUMINOUS COAL SMELTED FROM LAKE SUPERIOR ORE.

200 tons grey forge	priv. terms.
100 tons grey forge	$22 50—4 mos
100 tons grey forge	23 00—4 mos
75 tons grey forge	22 00—cash
60 tons grey forge	23 00—4 mos
50 tons extra grey forge, r. s.	22 00—4 mos
50 tons grey forge	23 00—4 mos
40 tons No. 2, foundry	25 00—4 mos
20 tons No. 1 foundry	27 00—4 mos
20 tons foundry	26 00—4 mos

CHARCOAL.

80 tons cold blast	$21 00—time
93 tons Nos. 1 & 2, foundry, h. r.	priv. terms.
50 tons mill, h. r.	priv. terms.

NEW YORK.

November 4.—Advices from other domestic markets, as given in our special reports printed herewith, give few indications of general and satisfactory improvement. The Philadelphia market is extremely dull, and sales are reported at prices lower than have been accepted by makers at any time since 1860. More furnaces are to be put out of blast, and the promised resumption of others have been postponed indefinitely. The nominal quotations are $24 00@24 50 for No. 1 foundry; $21 00@22 00 for No. 2, and $20 00@21 00 for grey forge. From Cincinnati we have reports of a more active demand for both foundry and mill irons. Hanging Rock hot blast charcoal, No. 1, is quoted at $25 00@26 00; No. 2 at $23 00@24 00, and forge at $21 00@22 00. Cold blast charcoal irons and hot blast coal and coke range about as reported for some weeks past. From St. Louis we have reports of a still falling market, with no present prospect of a recovery. From Louisville we hear that the principal consumers of iron, with the exception of car wheel founders, are quite busy. The stock of choice No. 1 foundry is nearly exhausted, and the demand continues good. The Baltimore and Boston markets are without feature.

American Pig.—The past week has been marked by exceptional dullness, and transactions have been very small. The tone of the market is no stronger, consumers manifesting no more disposition to buy than before the recent decline. Our quoted prices refer only to favorite brands, others being sold at a concession. We quote the sales of 800 tons white and mottled at $20 00 and 17 00. We hear of no other sales worth reporting. Our quotations are: foundary No. 1, $24 00; foundary No. 2, $22 00; grey forge, $20 00@21 00.

Scotch Pig.—The sales during the week have been confined to trifling lots of Eglington and 100 tons of Coltness on private terms. Prices are unchanged. We quote coltness, $33 00; Gartsherrie, $32 50; Eglinton, $29 50@30 00.

Bar.—The demand continues small, and although the nominal price of Eastern mills is 2.5 cents per ℔, the competition compels the shading of this price to secure any considerable order. We quote 2.4@2.5 cents at mills.

Rails.—There are negotiations going on for some large orders for iron rails. We hear of a lot of English 45-℔ rails on private terms. We quote American iron rails at $45 00@50 00, at mill, but we believe good buyers could get them even cheaper. Steel are $70 00.

Old Rails.—The price is nominally $23 00, at which some small lots have been sold. There is little demand.

Scrap.—The stock here, which is not large, is held at $31 00@32 00. We note the sale of 300 tons at $31 00.—Iron Age.

BRITISH IRON MARKET.

Scotch Pig.—Prices have fluctuated in both directions since last report was cabled, but the market is now firmer, and a large business is doing. The following are makers' quotations:

Gartsherrie No. 1	73s 6d
Coltness No. 1	78s
Glengarnock No. 1	70s
Eglinton No. 1	64s

Manufactured Iron.—Although but little doing, there is a firmer tone to the market, and best Staffordshire bars are quoted at £10.

Rails.—The market is dull and quotations are nominal. Welsh £6@£6 15s.—Cable Dispatch to Iron Age.

BELGIUM.

BRUSSELS, October 17.—Iron.—Orders have been more plentiful, but prices still keep at a moderate level. The fact is that our various works since the slight revival are entering upon a course of competition among each other which seriously interferes with general prosperity in our iron regions. This policy cannot but terminate disasterously to many. Thus the Government obtained its steel rails at 225 francs, which is a low figure, and even at 235 they could be obtained nowhere outside of Belgium. Pig iron industry is, if possible, still worse off. Out of 45 blast furnaces in the Charleroi district, but 17 are now in operation, 18 having been blown out during the past twelve months. Sheet iron is meanwhile doing comparatively better; prices are firm and the Belgian product is gaining in popularity abroad constantly. Coal—The demand for household purposes continues brisk, while for manufacturing there is as yet comparatively little inquiry. Prices are fluctuating considerably. According to our own calculations the consumption of coal is doubled every 15 years, both in England and Belgium. Per capita of the population there were consumed in Belgium 2 tons per head, or 10,250,000 tons altogether, while in England in the same year 3.8 tons were used by each person, equal to an aggregate consumption of 114,550,000 tons. Consequently with the population which Belgium possesses at present, we should, at the English rate of absorption, consume something like 19,000,000 tons. If, therefore, manufacturing industry in our country were to become flourishing once more we should have no coal to spare, but become importers instead.—Revue Universelle.

THE St. Louis Republican says: The first advertisement of the Great Republic in the Republican will be headed substantially as follows: "For Memphis, Vicksburg, New Orleans and Port Eads." She will become before many months the most renowned steamer on American waters, her hull being the largest ever put together to navigate the rivers or lakes, and her cabin unequalled anywhere. The excursion to Port Eads will be a right royal affair.

MONONGAHELA—Ten feet and rising.

Boats Advertised for This Day.

Brownsville and Geneva		8 A. M. and 4 P. M.
New Orleans	Big Foot	Poe, 4 P. M.

THE marks last evening indicated ten feet and rising, the rise being from the Monongahela. The weather was all that could be desired and trade on the landing was active. The way the towboats were moving around was a caution.

THE river is falling at Cincinnati. It will soon be going the other way.

CAPTAIN REA, late of the General Anderson, has accepted the position of chief engineer on the steamer Norton.

THE punctual packet Salt Valley will arrive on Sunday and take her departure for Ironton on Monday at 3 P. M.

THE best water out from Evansville is from the Mail Line wharfboat to the point of dyke, with five and a half feet.

AS WE have before remarked, the packets on the slackwater leave daily at 8 A. M. and 4 P. M. for all points on that stream.

THERE is a strike of coal miners on the Lower Ohio. It is general among the miners at Ingle's, Shottville and Newburg.

BUSINESS on the Upper Mississippi is reported so brisk that the Keokuk Northern Line are compelled to send out two or three boats daily.

FRIDAY'S Wheeling Intelligencer says: The Market Boy will to-morrow leave for Pittsburgh, and will hereafter make regular trips to that city.

WE understand that the Raymond City Coal Company intends shipping to Philadelphia a solid block of coal for exhibition at the Centennial weighing 2,550 pounds.

THE steamer Wild Duck and barges, in charge of Captain Adams, are announced to leave this day for St. Louis and way points. Shippers will bear this in mind.

THE new and handsome steamer Big Foot, Captain Poe, takes her departure this day for Cairo, Memphis and New Orleans. Passengers and shippers can rely on her going through.

GEN. JEFF. THOMPSON is credited with the prediction that by the 1st of January the Mississippi river will have cut a new channel near Vicksburg, leaving that place two miles inland.

THE St. Louis Republican of Monday says: The iron towboat No. 2 will soon go below, General Simpson having purchased her for something like $25,000 for Government service.

THE Burlington Hawkeye of Sunday states that the steamer Muscatine met with an accident to some of her machinery during her recent trip North, and has gone into winter quarters at Dubuque.

THE hull of the Indiana has been sold to Whitehall & Co. at Arkansas City. It is much twisted, but when the river rises the hull will straighten up, and it is then to be stationed at Arkansas City for a wharfboat.

THE Keokuk Northern Line Packet Company, on account of some trouble, has concluded not to receive or deposit freight at Clarksville, Missouri. The officers of the company have decided that in the future boats will not be allowed to stop at that point.

AS WILL be seen by reference to our advertising columns, the fine side-wheeler, Arlington, Captain D. Moore, leaves Cincinnati for New Orleans on the arrival of the train from Pittsburgh on Tuesday. A fine opportunity for passengers.

CINCINNATI.—J. S. Wise, H. A. Jones and Thomas Sherlock have sold the H. S. Turner to Captain Henry U. Hart and Edwin Donnelly for $10,000, and her purchasers will put her in the Cincinnati and New Orleans trade. Captain Hart was for two years commander of the steamer Thomas Sherlock, and during that time made a host of warm friends. Mr. Donnelly will be chief clerk of the Turner. He is a son of Captain Gus. Donelly and one of the best penmen living, besides being accomplished and very courteous. The Turner has recently had $5,000 of repairs and improvements put on her, and we predict that she will be a popular passenger packet.

Towboat Explosion and Loss of Life.

The towboat Tigress No. 2, owned by Captain John McCluskey and commanded by Captain James McCluskey, exploded one of her boilers on Friday morning at eight o'clock, at Osborn, near White's ripple, causing the death of Mr. Joseph Tarr and his son, John Tarr, both firemen. The boat is badly damaged. Others were slightly injured.

New Lights and Changes on the Ohio River Between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, Made by the United States Lighthouse Tender Lily.

Horse Tail—Light moved down to foot of the chute, where old house stood.

Baden—A new light was placed on the right bank where the old poplar tree stood.

Beaver Shoals—Lower light moved down abreast of where the old house stood.

Raccoon Bar—Light moved down about 100 yards.

Georgetown Island—Light moved up about 400 yards to clump of locust abreast of the rocks.

Black's Island—Light moved up about 150 yards.

Carpenter—Light on the Ohio side moved up about 100 yards.

Mustapha—Lower light moved down to the foot of the reef.

Belleville—Light moved down to the foot of the bar.

Goose Island—Light moved over to the Virginia side at the mouth of the run.

Raccoon Island—Light on the Virginia side moved down about 100 yards, for range light to come in the upper chute.

Conocoquinique—Light on Ohio side moved down a 100 yards for breast mark.

The Lily arrived at Cincinnati at 7 o'clock last evening, and will remain till next month, when she will go South to inspect the lights on the Lower Mississippi river.

The First Fall Run of Coal.

The rise in the Monongahela has enabled the coal men to forward a few millions of coal to the lower markets. The weather was all that could be desired for handling. The wharf was crowded the entire day. Boatstore dealers had a busy time in furnishing stores to a fleet of about fifty steamers. Butchers and ice dealers had all they could do and seemed happy. All things taken into consideration business was lively on the landing. The coal run for November 1874 was:

	Bushels.
To Cincinnati	4,973,000
To Louisville	2,415,000
To Nashville	105,000
To New Orleans	355,000
Total	7,848,000

New York Papers on the Great Picture.

"A magnificent painting. A grand success."—N. Y. Express.

"We have said the "great" picture advisedly, because it must rank as indisputably the best battle-piece which has ever been composed or painted in this country." —Frank Leslie's Illustrated.

This grand work of art, Lookout Mountain, is now at the Exposition building. See it now if ever.

Suit for Slander.

Michael Murphy commenced proceedings in the Common Pleas Court No. 1, yesterday, to recover damages for slander from Patrick Sherdon. The plaintiff is a puddler in Painter's mill, and engaged the defendant as a helper. For some cause he discharged Sherdon, and the latter, it is alleged, declared he would be revenged. Accordingly, as Murphy states, he circulated the report that plaintiff had stolen some metal from a fellow workman's heat in order to increase his wages. A capias was issued.

East End Free Dispensary.

Three months ago a free medical dispensary was started in the East End, the first quarterly report of which shows encouraging results. It is as follows:

Matrimonial.

Mr. W. W. McFarland, city manager of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, this city, and Miss Anetta, second daughter of Mr. James Clark, of Belfast, Clermont county, Ohio, were united in matrimony at the residence of the bride's parents on Saturday evening last, by the Rev. Dr. I. R. Baumes, of the Cincinnati Journal and Messenger. The ceremony was attended by over sixty friends and relatives of the happy couple, and an exceedingly enjoyable time was had. We congratulate our young friend Will, and wish him and his happy bride a long life of prosperity and one crowded full of enjoyment.

Stirring Up a Breeze.

Yesterday afternoon the Mayor, Controller and Treasurer received copies of the following document, which speaks for itself:

PITTSBURGH, November 5, 1875.

To the Controller, Treasurer and Mayor of Pittsburgh:

You are hereby notified to pay no further estimates to Jacob H. Walter on account of contract for erection of water works, as we claim, under agreement with him, all the balance would be paid on account thereof, and we shall hold the city responsible for any payments made to said Walter after this notice. C. HOWARD & SONS.

Bank Robbery at Pittston.

By a special correspondence received at the office of Hall's Safe & Lock Company, 93 Smithfield street, the full particulars of the late robbery at Pittston are obtained, and from them we learn that a burglar alarm and the safes relied on for protection gave no security whatever, and a little more time would have opened them all (there being several) and relieved the bank of everything valuable.

It seems the only protection from the masked ruffian and midnight burglar is in the use of the "infallible chronometric attachment" applied to a safe of known reliability and acknowledged by burglars to be a terror to them.

Full particulars may be obtained at the place mentioned.

City Property Committee.

The City Property Committee met in regular session last night, Mr. Hunter in the chair.

A bill of $1,686 33 was presented by the Pittsburgh Gas Company, for coke delivered to City Hall from January 1st to July 1st. The janitor was instructed to receive no coke hereafter unless accompanied by a ticket. Bill approved.

The bill for the wardrobe selected by the Chief of Police for use in his office, provoked considerable discussion. It was stated that the Mayor is dissatisfied with it where it is, but would rather have it in his own office. The whole matter was referred to the City Hall Committee.

A bill of $114 for repairs in Central Station was referred to Central Station Committee for examination.

Bill for doors, frames, window shutters, amounting to $100, was approved.

City Hall pay roll, amounting to $370, was approved. The whole number of bills approved amounted to $1,859 65.

Mr. Braun moved that hereafter no orders be given except by direction of the full committee.

Temperance Jubilee Meeting.

The twelfth of the series of independent temperance jubilee meetings will be held in the Alliance rooms, corner Penn avenue and Sixth street, to-morrow evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. These meetings are under the immediate supervision and control of Messrs. Morris and Lincoln, who have from the beginning, conducted them on entirely independent principles, and soley for the promotion of temperance reform, and unsectarian religious instruction. To-morrow evening Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln will sing a number of popular and inspiring selections, and the Topic Talks, interspersed with song, will be "Struggles and Triumphs," "Feast and Famine," "Blighted Hopes." The results attending these meetings have been exceedingly gratifying, large numbers have signed the total abstinance pledge and are earnestly striving to lead a different life, and large numbers are gathered here night after night, who seldom, if ever, attend church, and are permitted not only to hear temperance proclaimed, but receive religious instruction as well.

In consequence of the crowded state of the rooms each evening, we advise those of our readers desiring to attend to go early if they do not wish to be compelled to go away for want of room.

STEAMBOAT EXPLOSION.

Tigress No. 2 Bursts a Boiler With Fatal Result.

At an early hour this morning, Tigress No. 2, one of the oldest boats at this port, started down the river to take off a flat grounded below Sewickley. Just as she was entering "The Traps," a point opposite Osborn station, boiler number two, larboard side, exploded with terrific force. It was lifted right up through the roof, passed between the smoke stacks and landed on the forward end of the boat. Hot water and scalding steam was scattered in every direction with serious results. The Fireman, Joseph Tarr, was severely burned, but was able to swim ashore. His son, John Tarr, a young man of sixteen years, was most terrible scalded, and only lived a few hours. The watchman, Mr. McCullough, was blown off of the deck and landed in the yawl. His injuries are not serious although quite painful. Altogether there were about twelve men on board, some of whom were making there first trip, none were severely injured save those mentioned above:

The cause of the explosion remains a mystery, as the boilers had been fully tested and were not carrying more than one half the pressure of steam allowed. The engineer escaped unhurt, and Captain McClosky, who was at the wheel, came off without a scratch. Neither of these gentlemen have the leat idea of the cause of the trouble. The flying boiler carried away a large portion of the upper works and the front of the pilot house in its flight, but otherwise leaving the boat uninjured. The steam tug, James Keefer, towed the wreck to Sewickly, where she awaits an investigation by the local inspectors. The two injured men were taken to their home between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets, South Side.

THE OFFICIAL RETURNS.

The Footings to be Made To-Day.

Judges Sterrett, Stowe and Collier yesterday completed the work of tabulating the returns of Tuesday's election, and the figures are given herewith in detail. After the figures had been put in tabular form, the clerks adjourned until nine o'clock this morning, when they will begin the work of footing up the vote cast for the several cadidates. The totals will not vary much from those already published. A count for Governor, made by one of the clerks, but not verified by comparison, foots up as follows:

The Fall Fashions.

Gentlemen who would dress neatly and fashionably have only to consult Mr. B. Tiegel, No. 53 Smithfield street, to ascertain how they may accomplish the desired result. At Tiegel's establishment they will find one of the most complete assortments of imported goods ever brought to this city. The proprietor is one of the most aristocratic and finished cutters in the country, and prides himself especially upon the superior fit and style of his coats.

After the Elections.

It is well known that the Boston Clothing House, 95 Smithfield street, is kept thoroughly stocked with every description of clothing for men and boys, but it may be well enough to state that the proprietors have this season made lower prices than have been known since 1860—the year before the war. They are offering their entire stock at a reduction, and invite their friends and the public to give them a call. They will guarantee satisfaction in the style, quality and prices of their goods.

ALLEGHENY POOR.

Meeting of the Board of Directors Last Night—Reports of the Steward and Clerk—Other Business.

The Board of Directors of the Poor of Allegheny City held their November meeting last evening.

REPORTS.

Clerk McGonnigle read the report of the Controller, showing a balance on hand of the Poor fund of $3,186 85.

The report of Steward Grubbs was presented. From it we make the following synopsis:

Number of inmates in Poor Department September 30th, 159; admitted since, 40, born, 2; died, 2; eloped and discharged, 24; leaving number of inmates October 30th, 175. Number of inmates in Insane Department September 30th, 45; admitted since, 6; discharged, 3; leaving number of inmates October 31st, 48. Total number in both departments, 223.

Number of meals furnished to "tramps" during last month, 96; number of hours worked by "tramps," 56½; number of men performing daily labor during the month, 57.

The report was received and filed.

The report of the clerk, Mr. McGonnigle, showing the amount paid for out door relief during October, $208, was read and approved.

PAUPERS AND TRAMPS.

The following are extracts from the report of Steward Grubbs to the Board:

"In the management of our people I have aimed at accomplishing the most work by the kindest means, satisfied that people in their condition can be led when they could not be driven; and I have not been disappointed. We have many good people willing to do all their physical condition admits, while we have only a few whom I can denominate as bummers."

"The system I have adopted with the professional 'tramp' (requiring him to work) is working admirably. From an average of six to eight per night, the number of these visitors is now not more than six to eight per week."

Bills for October amounting to $3,700, approved by the Finance Committee, were ordered to be paid.

A PROPOSITION.

Mr. Speer offered a resolution providing for the division of the city into two districts for the better attention of the sick, the first district to consist of the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Ninth wards, and the second district to consist of the Seventh, Eighth and Tenth wards and the City Home at Claremont, and that two physicians shall be elected yearly at a salary not exceeding $500 each per annum. The resolution also provides for an amendment of the code of rules of the Board, so as to conform with its provisions. The proposed amendment prescribes the duties of the two physicians. The resolution was laid over till next meeting.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Mr. Speer moved that a certain amount of money be set apart each month for out door relief. Carried. The amount for November was fixed at $200.

A requisition of the Steward for supplies was read, and referred to the Supply Committee.

Mr. Speer moved that $100 be set apart for the use of the steward, to be used in purchasing small articles needed at the Home. Carried.

Adjourned.

Our Alliance Enterprise.

The Methodist Recorder says: "The Pittsburgh COMMERCIAL reported in full the addresses delivered at the Evangelical Alliance last week. It was a grand newspaper achievement for Pittsburgh, and the people appreciate it. By enclosing ten cents, an extra COMMERCIAL, containing the entire proceedings, will be sent post-paid. It is a most valuable publication. One or two of the addresses are sure to excite discussion among religious papers."

Change of Hours.

The Germania Savings Bank will be open for business this evening, and every Saturday evening until May, 1876, from six to eight o'clock, instead of seven to nine o'clock.

CITY MATTERS IN BRIEF.

THE Water Extension Committee has expended $185,331 10, since the beginning of the fiscal year.

THE Board of Health did not hold a meeting yesterday owing to the fact that there was no business to attend to.

A NICE young man went through the clothes of James Gibson, while riding up Federal street, Allegheny, in the Pleasant Valley cars. He only got $3 25.

ONE of Mitchell's buggies went over an embankment at Liberty and Main streets. The woman jumped out, but the man stuck to the wreck. Neither of them were hurt.

AN intoxicated man was robbed of a gold watch by a "grabber" on the corner of Seventh and Grant street night before last. This style of thieving has become very popular of late.

THE Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company has reduced the freight charges on all fourth-class goods between Chicago and Pittsburgh from twenty-five to nineteen cents, or from fifty dollars to thirty eight dollars per car.

AT the office of the Post, near midnight on Tuesday, the verbal order went up from the editorial department to the foreman of the composing room, "Don't put the chickens in the first edition—we'll wait for further returns!" Those chickens are still in the coop.

A THIEF, Thursday night, rolled a barrel of fish from the steps of John L. Wyland's store, corner of Sandusky and Ohio streets, Allegheny. It was found yesterday morning in an alley in the vicinity of the store, minus about fifty pounds of fish, which the thief had carried away.

A BULLOCK belonging to an Allegheny butcher named Brown, while being driven along the Butcher's Run road yesterday, jumped into a sewer, falling a distance of sixteen feet to the bottom. They took him out in sections—after the butcher had slaughtered and dressed the animal.

THE suit against Alderman Krehan for the recovery of a deed, which the plaintiff, Jacob Wertzell, alleged had been lost or stolen from the defendants office, was decided in favor of the defendant, the deed having been produced by a brother-in-law of the plaintiff, who was the rightful possessor of the document.

THE trustees who refused Richard Prosser a permit to bury his children in the old Methodist grave yard, on the South Side, give as a reason for their refusal that the place is full, and in order to prevent them from doubling up it was decided not to permit any more interments. The people object to the order most strenuously, but the trustees claim entire control of the matter.

MR. KETCHEM, who hangs out on Third avenue, left his coat and hat in the hall while he went into the parlor to put on his gloves. In less than five minutes after he left his outer apparel on the rack, he returned to get it, but some one had been there while he was gone, leaving him to shiver and freeze or buy a new outfit. Mr. Ketchem says if he could only "ketch'em," he would show him how to steal a fellow's clothes just when he is ready to go to the opera.

THE locomotive, which is to bring a train from New York to this city in ten hours, left the Union Depot yesterday morning for the starting place. The train will not stop during the trip, unless compelled to do so by some accident. It is one of the largest locomotives owned by the Pennsylvania Railroad, and has a fuel car similar in appearance to a baggage car, in additional to the tender, which will carry sufficient coal for the trip. The trial trip will be made on Tuesday next.

MR. W. S. CRAIG, of Allegheny, while pumping water from coal barges near the railroad bridge, Thursday night about twelve o'clock, saw two men descend from the bridge to the water's edge near the abutment and quietly engage in fisticuffs. In a short time one had knocked the other down, when the fallen one, saying he was satisfied, got up and shook hands with the victor and the two walked away arm in arm, apparently on the most friendly terms.

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

The Testimonial Benefit to Mr. V. E. Beamer.

If any person had been skeptical as to the high esteem of this community for Mr. V. E. Beamer, a look at the audience at Library Hall, last evening, when a complimentary performance was given for his benefit, would have removed all ground for doubt. The audience was the equal in intelligence, culture and refinement of any ever assembled within the walls of a theater in this city. It was a tribute well bestowed, as the beneficiary has, during his career as manager in our city, shown himself a true gentleman on every occasion. Now that ill health has brought him down, and forced him to leave us, it was fitting and just that his friends in the Smoky City should demonstrate that they had not forgotten him. This they did last night, by turning out and filling the hall.

Before the rising of the curtain, R. M. Gibson, Esq., came to the front and made a neat little speech, preliminary to the reading of a letter from Mr. Beamer, thanking his Pittsburgh friends for their unsought mark of kindness and remembrance. Mr. G. spoke feelingly of Mr. Beamer's affliction, and on his behalf thanked the performers who had so readily volunteered their services for the occasion; the poet, Col. Realf; the proprietors, editors and reporters of the press, for their services in forwarding the good work now in hand; the Library Association for the use of the hall, free of charge—everybody, in fact, who had contributed to the success of the benefit. Mr. Gibson's remarks and Mr. Beamer's letter were warmly applauded.

Prof. William Mason Evans then appeared on the stage, and announced that, owing to the illness of Col. Realf, who had written a poem to be read here this evening, he had been called upon to perform that service. He then read the poem, which is entitled

SYMBOLISM.

Fair are the flowers and the children, but their subtile suggestion is fairer,
Rare is the rose-burst of dawn, but the secret that clasps it is rarer;
Sweet the exultance of song, but the strain
that fore-runs it is sweeter,
And never was poem yet writ but the meaning outmastered the meter.

Back of the canvas that throbs the painter is hinted and hidden,
Into the statue that breathes the soul of the sculptor is bidden;
Under the joy that is felt are the infinite
sources of feeling,
Crowning the glory revealed is the glory that grants the revealing.

Never a daisy that grows but a mystery
guideth the growing,
Never a river that flows but a majesty scepters
the flowing;
Never a Shakespeare that soared but a grander
than he did enfold him,
Nor ever a Prophet foretells but a mightier
Seer hath foretold him.

Great are the symbols of Being, but that which is symboled is greater;
Vast the beheld and create, but vaster the inward creator;
Back of the sound broods the silence, back of the gift warms the giving,
Back of the hand that receives thrill the sensitive nerves of receiving.

Space is as nothing to spirit, the deed is outstrode
by the doing;
You woo him from sorrow to-night, he quickens
and thrills with the wooing;
And up from the bed where he listens, as up from the hall where you shine,
Twin pillars of incense swim starward, and the fragrance of Life is Divine.

This also came in for warm commendation.

Owing to circumstances not necessary to explain here, a change of programme became necessary yesterday morning, and the following short but excellent concert was substituted for "Stradella":

Quartete—"From the Valley"—(Balfe) Misses Kennedy and Henne and Messrs. Zimmerman and Boehme.

Solo—Porter's Song—(Flotow) Mr. Paul Boehme.

Song—The Flower Girl—(Bevignani) Miss Inez Kennedy.

Piano Solo—Melodie Andanta, Snow Witch Polka—F. Zittebart, Jr.

Song—"Good-Bye, Sweetheart"—(Hatton) Mr. Paul Zimmerman.

Song—"Fl Forth, Oh Gentle Dove—(Ciro Pinsuti) Miss Theresa Henne.

This was followed by the comedietta, "Who Speaks First," with Misses Effie Ellsler and Charlin Weidman and Messrs. John Ellsler, H. A. Ellis and H. W. Wilson in the cast. It was played with great spirit and elicited much enthusiasm, every one praising Miss Effie for her sprightly, life-like portraiture of the willful wife.

The second act of Flotow's "Martha" was sung by Misses Inez Kennedy and Theresa Henne and Messrs. Paul Zimmerman and Paul Boehme, all acquitting themselves admirably. Where all did so well, it is not necessary to single out any one for special praise.

Toerge's Germania Orchestra, too, added their full quota to the enjoyment of the evening. The overtures were handsomely executed, and they played in good time, supporting the singers well.

The entertainment, from beginning to end, was such as to leave nothing to be wished by the audience, unless, like Oliver Twist, they wanted "more."

Trimble's Varieties Theater.

The matinee at this ever popular theater begins at half-past two, when a programme of high quality will be given. This evening, the usual extraordinary bill will be presented.

Pittsburgh Opera House.

Miss Minnie Palmer will make her last appearance here this afternoon and evening, playing "Little Silver" and "Satan in Paris." Monday evening, as already announced, Barry Sullivan will appear as Richelieu.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Supreme Court—Full Bench.

The case of McCarthy vs. the Commonwealth, ex rel. J. H. Walter, was argued by Hamilton for McCarthy and Brown and Seagle contra. The Court below issued a mandamus to compel the Mayor to sign a warrant in favor of Mr. Walter, who succeded Howard & Son in the construction of Hiland avenue reservoir. The Mayor had declined to sign the warrant, on the ground that Howard & Son had been overpaid.

Wray vs. Evans was argued by C. B. M. Smith for plaintiff in error and M. W. Acheson contra.

Lee vs. R. E. Sellers & Co. was argued by Shiras for plaintiff in error and Acheson contra.

United States District Court—Judge McCandless.

Sentences were passed in this court upon the following convicts:

Prof. DeLong, who plead guilty to sending obscene matter through the mails, was fined $500 and senteneed to two years' in the penitentiary.

B. F. Erway, convicted of passing counterfeit money, was sentenced to the penitentiary for four years.

Michael Riley, who was indicted with Erway and convicted, wassentenced to one year's imprisonment in the Penitentiary.

J. M. Croft, son of the postmaster at Breakneck, Butler county, who was convicted of embezzling a registered letter from the mail, was sent to the penitentiary for three years.

Wm. Snyder, colored, who stole a valuable letter from the Allegheny postoffice, which had been sent to New York by the Second National Bank of that city, and then tried to collect a reward for returning the same, by representing that he had been deputized by a dying man in Harrisburg to return the letter, was sentenced to two years imprisonment.

BANKRUPTCY CASES.

John M. Fass, bankrupt, city. An order was made adjusting bankruptcy and a warrant was issued for a meeting of creditors to choose an assignee, returnable on the 23d instant.

Lewis Brainard, bankrupt, Luzerne county. Register's report on petition of G. H. Mills, creditor, presented, taxing a fee of $10 for suit report, and the assignee ordered to pay the claim of said creditor $859 01.

In the matter of the Nation Trust Company. Petition of Richard Knowlson et ux. presented, asking leave to proceed to judgment in certain cases in the State courts, and the said application was refused.

Fred. G. Weise, debtor, city. Register's report of composition meeting, together with the resolution accepting the proposition for a compromise, presented and order made for a meeting, on the 15th inst., of the creditors, to inquire whether the act was legal.

N. Whiting & Co., debtors, city. An order was made for a meeting of the creditors, on the 19th inst., before Register Schaffer, to consider and pass upon a proposition for the settlement and composition of all debts due him.

B. M. Laughlin vs. steamer "Juniata," in admiralty. Commissioner's report on distribution referred back to him so as to amend as to allow the claim of the United States for hospital dues and inspection fees, and the report as amended confirmed absolutely, and the clerk ordered to pay out the money.

Common Pleas No. 1—Judge Sterrett.

The Commonwealth ex. rel. vs. William H. Fairburn et al. Verdict for defendants.

F. M. and H. Brooke vs. John M. Mueller; an action for goods sold. Verdict for plaintiffs for $718 81.

Isaac Rigby vs. Rev. M. Domenec. Rule to show cause why mechanics' lien in this case should not be taken off.

Patrick Regan vs. Michael Dwyer; an action on a promissory note. On trial.

Common Pleas No. 2—Judge Ewing.

Bernhard Grimes vs. Moses Call, reported yesterday. Verdict for plaintiff for $500 24.

Thomas J. Hall vs. William A. McClurg; action to recover wages alleged to be due. Verdict for plaintiff for $618 89.

R. L. McCully vs. J. V. Rowland; an action to recover for services as engineer. Verdict for plaintiff for $150.

E. W. H. Shenley and Mary E. Shenley, in right and in use for said Mary E. Shenley, vs. E. Wormser; an action to recover rent. Verdict of $113 71 for plaintiff.

Dennis O'Brien, by his next friend, vs. Charles Diebold; an action for damages for false arrest and imprisonment. Verdict for defendant.

John N. Schafer, for use of Anna C. Evert, vs. August Ammon; an action to recover Birmingham Building and Loan Association stock which was transferred to defendant. On trial.

Quarter Sessions—Judge White.

Levi Berwald and wife, are on trial on a charge of arson, preferred by Seth Wilmot. It is alleged that the defendants set fire to a dwelling house, No. 2,717 Carson street, South Side, belonging to Mary Rankin and another party, which communicated to the house of John B. Lutz, which was burned.

John McKee's Cure for Cold Weather.

PITTSBURGH, November 5, 1875.

Times ain't as thay used to was, for it yused to be that a man cood find overcotes in halls and walk away with won on his back, but the whether is very cold since the Republikans won the day and now every Dimmycrat shood by an overcote from DeRoy to keep in his heat up in the Salt River country—cold weather will bite the skin unless you get one of DeRoy's overcotes and keep old Boreas out and DeRoy got them for a song and sells them just as cheap Anyhow two dollars will buy a good one and three dollars will get a jambunkum overcote DeRoy sells them for nothing nearly good cotes for a little more than nothing. Anybody can redeem a good overcote at DeRoy's, 153 Smithfield street, Gazette building.

Symptoms of Catarrh.

Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery and acrid, at others thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang, the breath is offensive, smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, mental depression, hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above named symptoms are, however, likely to be present in any one case. There is no disease more common than catarrh, and none less understood by physicians.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY.

is, beyond all comparison, the best preparation for Catarrh ever discovered. Under the influence of its mild, soothing and healing properties, the disease soon yields. The Golden Medical Discovery should be taken to correct the blood, which is always at fault, and to act specifically upon the diseased glands and lining membrane of the nose. The Catarrh Remedy should be applied warm with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche—the only instrument by which fluids can be perfectly injected to all the passages and chambers of the nose from which discharges proceed.

These medicines are sold by Druggists.

AN AMERICAN ironmaster, who recently returned from a visit to England, where he spent some months in investigating the condition of the iron and steel trade of that country, is reported in the New York Mail as expressing the belief that so long as this Republic maintains a tariff protection of our iron industries there is no hope of the English iron producer regaining the American market, and that our advantages are such that in time we shall be able to compete with the English iron producer on English soil, and undersell the latter in the English markets, so that the English will either be compelled to reduce the wages of their workmen much lower than at present, or abandon the free-trade policy and establish a protective tariff to shut out American iron. He thinks the latter course will be adopted, because the other would force a large emigration of the operatives to this country. A third course he says has been quietly adopted by some, of transferring their industrial works to the Republic. This gentleman thinks that the disastrous state of trade for the past two years has really not injured the American iron business, as it has forced economy in the cost of production, and at the same time reduced the foreign imports from $60,000,000, gold value, to $19,000,000, so that with the renewal of business the market would be in possession of the domestic trade.—Philadelphia North American.

There is no one article known that will do so many kinds of work and do it as well as Sapolio. Try it.

BANNER BAKING POWDER
Is an article that is coming into more general favor every day. By using it according to printed directions the most satisfactory results follow.

BANNER BAKING POWDER
Is unequaled for producing light, sweet, nutritious and delicious Biscuit, Rolls, Muffins, Cakes, &c.

BANNER BAKING POWDER
Used in Fancy Cakes saves one-third the Eggs and Shortening, and makes them much more palatable than the old way.

BANNER BAKING POWDER
In Pot Pies, Dumplings and Puddings renders them easy to take, and they go right to the spot.

BANNER BAKING POWDER
Makes Buckwheat Cakes sweet and tender. Made with it they are never sour, as is often the case where yeast is used.

BANNER BAKING POWDER
In all kinds of Griddle Cakes, makes them better, quicker and with less labor than in any other way.

BANNER BAKING POWDER
Used in Corn Bread, Short Cake, &c., renders them light and healthful. Try it and tell your neighbors what it does for you.

In each can of Banner Baking Powder there is a small measure, and a list of fifty valuable recipes goes with it, by following which all mistakes are avoided. It is sold by Retail Grocers and Dealers generally. If the firm whom you favor with your patronage does not keep it, ask them to order a sample lot from their Wholesale Grecer or from the Manufacturer.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, FOR THE CURE OF CONSUMPTION, COUGHS AND COLDS.

The great virtue of this medicine is that it ripens the matter and throws it out of the system, purifies the blood, and thus effects a cure.

SCHENCK'S SEA WEED TONIC, FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, INDIGESTION, &C.

The Tonic produces a healthy action of the stomach, creating an appetite, forming chyle, and curing the most obstinate cases of indigestion.

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, FOR THE CURE OF LIVER COMPLAINT, &C.

These Pills are alterative, and produce a healthy action of the liver, without the least danger, as they are free from calomel, and yet more efficacious in restoring a healthy action of the liver.

These remedies are a certain cure for Consumption, as the Pulmonic Syrup ripens the matter and purifies the blood. The Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, create a healthy bile, and remove all diseases of the liver, often a cause of Consumption. The Sea Weed Tonic gives tone and strength to the stomach, makes a good digestion, and enables the organs to form good blood; and thus creates a healthy circulation of healthy blood. The combined action of these medicines, as thus explained, will cure every case of consumption, if taken in time, and the use of the medicines persevered in.

FOR SALE.
308,000 ACRES
Valuable Lands,
IN KANSAS.

By direction of the Honorable Secretary of the Interior, the undersigned will receive sealed bids for the purchase of any or all of the unsold Lands west of the Neosho river, along the southern line of the State of Kansas embraced within what is generally known as the "CHEROKEE STRIP."

These Lands are offered for sale in compliance with the provisions of an act of Congress approved May 11, 1872 [U. S. Statutes at Large, vol. xvii, pp. 98 and 99].

They will be sold to the highest bidder for cash, in quantities not exceeding One Hundred and Sixty Acres at not less than Two Dollars per acre for all of said Lands lying east of the Arkansas river, and One Dollar and Fifty Cents per acre for such Lands as lie west of said river.

Printed lists, describing the Lands hereby offered for sale by their proper legal subdivisions and indicating the minimum price at which each tract is held, will be sent by mail to the address of any person making application therefor to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, or to the Register and Receiver of the local offices at Wichita and Independence, Kansas.

Persons offering to purchase may bid for as many tracts as they may desire, but each bid must be separately made and sealed, and must be for not more than One Hundred and Sixty Acres (and conform to the legal subdivisions embraced in the list).

Bids must be accompanied by 10 per cent. of the amount bid as a guarantee of the good faith of the bidder, which sum, in case the Land is awarded and the balance not paid, will be forfeited. Should any bid be rejected, the sum deposited will be returned to the proper party.

Parties whose bids are accepted will be notified of such acceptance as soon after the opening of the bids as practicable, and if within forty days after such notice has been duly mailed payment in full be not made to the Commissioner of the General Land Office of the amount bid, the Land upon which such bid was made will be again subject to sale.

The 10 per cent. deposit required to accompany bids may be remitted in Postoffice orders, certificates of deposit, certified checks on some Government depository, payable to the order of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, or in currency.

The right to reject any and all bids is expressly reserved.

All bids must be sealed and addressed to the "Commissioner of the General Land Office, Washington, D. C.," and indorsed "Bids for Cherokee Strip Lands."

Bids will be received as above invited until 12 o'clock noon of the THIRTIETH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1875, after which they will be duly opened and acted upon.

S. S. BURDETT,
Commissioner of the General Land Office.
Washington, D. C., September 15, 1875.
